THE FAIR A SUCCESS.

Fifty-Fourth Annual Exhibition Pleased Managers and Public.

TRACK RECORD WAS LOWERED.

Bloomsburg Horse Clipped Seconds from the Time—Towanda Baby Won the Prize in Baby Show—Ulster Won Ball Games—Some Notes.

The fifty-fourth fair of the Bradford County Agricultural society is over and ended Friday with a fine attendance. The weather all day was as good as it could be. There were close to 3,500 tickets of admission sold, and the crowd on the ground numbered between 5,000 and 6,000. The fifty-fourth may be set down as one of the most successful exhibitions given by the society of late years. The weather—which makes or unmakes a county fair—was favorable throughout with the exception of a few lowering hours on Thursday morning. Doubtless the agricultural society will be able to announce later a satisfactory financial result.

The Second Day.

The second day of the fair was largely attended. The weather was all right and the attractions offered pleased the crowd. The attendance in the middle of the day was a big one, numbering several thousand. There were in the neighborhood of 2,500 tickets sold at the gates besides the many holders of season tickets present.

On Wednesday morning Secretary Park received a letter from Prof. Joe Shapotis of Shanandoah, saying that he would not be able to keep his date at the Bradford county fair for the reason that he had lost his balloon. It was burned up at the last ascension.

When the fair opened Wednesday morning a great improvement over the day before in the condition of the several departments was observed.

Fast Ball Game.

Wednesday Monroeton and Ulster two old rivals on the base ball field, faced each other. Umpire Meredith called the game at 2:30 o'clock. Both teams had been especially strengthened for the occasion. McCabe and Dunfee were the battery for Monroeton, and Campbell and Morrison for Ulster. McCabe, who has been playing the past season with Lancaster, pitched a very good game for Monroeton, and with any ordinary team to buck against, would have been a winner, but M. Madagan made a two-bagger for Ulster in the first inning, and this set the ball rolling, so that before Monroeton came to bat Ulster had piled up four scores. Campbell, the pitcher for Ulster, was the same man who won the game for Troy last week against the Williamsport Tri-State team. He was too hot for the Monroeton team and at the end of the game the score stood 8 to 0 in favor of Ulster.

The following is the score by innings:

The Races.

The track was in good condition and shortly after 2 p. m. the steppers in the 2:40 class lined up in front of the judges stand for the first race of the fair. J. C. Keefe of Moravia, N. Y., was the starter and Messrs. E. J. Atwood, W. H. Coulling, G. M. Clark and Lester G. Marshall acted as judges. Both of yesterday's races—the 2:40 class and the 2:25 class—were satisfactorily run and much interest was shown in them by a large crowd of spectators. In the 2:40 class the purse was $150 and it was very neatly won by Dr. D. L. Pratt's "Major Ross," in three straight heats. The time was 2:34¼, 2:31¼ and 2:35¼. There were four entries and the standing of the horses at the finish was as follows: "Major McKinney," H. R. Welles, Wilkes-Barre, 3, 2, 3; "Hector," b. g., J. A. Underwood, Elmira, 4, 4, 4; "Thomas S.," b. g., R. M. Ketcham, Wellsboro, 2, 3, 2; "Major Ross," b. g., D. L. Pratt, Towanda, 1, 1, 1.

In the 2:25 race there were four entries and it was won by "Directum Delmar" in the first two and the fourth heats; time 2:25¼, 2:25¼, 2:26¼, 2:25¼. The position at the finish is shown below: "Phleta Medium," b. m., H. H. Northrop, Towanda, 4, 3, 1, 2; "Miss Sue," r. m., W. P. Colvin, Elmira, 2, 2, 3, 4; "Directum Delmar," George Lewis, Pittston, 1, 1, 2, 1; "Wild Magnolia," W. H. Doane, Elmira, 3, 4, 4, 3.

The Baby Show.

The baby show was one of the principal attractions Wednesday and drew a large crowd. It was held on the platform opposite the grand stand, and the judges were Mrs. Ellis D. Chaffee, of Orwell; Mrs. Norman McCoy, Towanda; Capt. G. W. Kilmer, Monroeton. The entries were nine in number—seven girls and two boys—as follows: Lucy Leola Brown, Orwell aged eight months; Edna Josephine Young, Wysox, aged five months; Flossie Ridgeway, Wysox, aged 2 2months; Helen Foster Lindley, Towanda, aged 17 months; Thalma Dell Blash, Great Bend, aged 13 months; Marian Elizabeth Robinson, North Rome, aged seven months; Murray Martin Horton, North Rome, aged 15 months; Edward Gillette Peck, Hornbrok, aged 20 months, and Christine Howell, Wyalusing, aged one year. They were a fine looking lot of babies and each had on its best bib and tucker and seemed to realize that now was the time to look its prettiest. After a few minutes of careful deliberation by the judges, Captain Kilmer announced that the prize had been awarded to Helen Foster Lindley, and that honorable mention had been made of Josephine Edna Young. The prize winner receives $5, and is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Lindley of this place. The honorable mention baby is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Young, Wysox. Captain Kilmer announced to the crowd that there would be another baby show in connection with next year's fair and urged that they make preparation for it.

The Big Day.

Thursday was the big day at the Bradford county fair, notwithstanding the rain of the morning and the preceding night. The rain, without doubt, kept a larger number away, for the early hours of the morning were bad and after people changed their minds and decided not to come, they didn't change back. But there was an enormous crowd of people there just the same and they had a royal good time, for after the weather righted itself it was a day of days for a county fair—warm, bright and the dust all laid. There were close to 6,000 tickets of admission sold, and 8,000 people on the ground, for the number who were in on life membership tickets, and as exhibitors and helpers, etc., made an army.

At 11 o'clock Thursday morning the parade in front of the grand stand of all the premium-winning live stock was held.

The Races.

The races began shortly after 2 o'clock, and drew a large crowd. The 2:30 class, purse $200, came first, and was won in one, two, three order by "Direct J.," the black gelding owned by James Kinney of Towanda; time 2:29¼, 2:28¼, and 2:31¼. Four horses started but Thomas S., the Wellsboro horse, was withdrawn after the second heat. The following is the score: "Direct J.," bl. g., James Kinney, Towanda, 1, 1, 1; "Phleta Medium," b. m., H. H. Northrup, Towanda, 3, 2, 2; "Wild Magnolia," b. g., W. H. Doane, Elmira, 2, 3, 3.

The 2:14 Class.

In the 2:14 race, purse $200, there were three entries. This was also won in three straight heats by "Little Joe," the Rome horse. Here is the score: "Little Joe," b. g., Dr. L. G. Marshall, Rome, 1, 1, 1; "Tom S.," ch. g., P. M. Smith, Bath, N. Y., 2, 2, 2; "Sundown," b. g., G. M. Wood, Elmira, 3, 3, 3; time 2:21, 2:21¼, 2:21¾.

Track Record Broken.

The races of the day were the 2:18 class and the free-for-all. A large crowd witnessed them, and saw the track record for trotters lowered twice. The trotting record of the fair ground track was 2:18¾. Friday in the first heat of the free-for-all it was lowered to 2:18, and again in the third heat to 2:15¾. "Robert D.," a Bloomsburg gelding, had no particular trouble doing it, or in capturing the race. He took the three heats straight, and the time was 2:18, 2:19, and 2:15¾. There were four starters and this is the score:

"Robert D.," br. g., Dr. Woolever, Bloomsburg, 1, 1, 1; "Little Joe," b. g., Dr. L. G. Marshall, Rome, 2, 2, 2; "Scape Goat," b. g., M. E. Howell, Scranton, 3, 3, 3; "Black Heart," W. H. Coulling, Cato, N. Y., 4, 4, 4. In announcing the free-for-all race the starter, J. C. Keefe, told the crowd that the horses were the fastest string that ever came up before the grand stand at a Bradford county fair. They have records as follows: "Little Joe," 2:16¼; "Black Heart," 2:12¼, "Robert D.," 2:11¼, and "Scape Goat," 2:09¼.

In the 2:18 race there were three starters and three heats trotted, and "Tom S.," a Bath, N. Y., horse, won them all. The score: "Tom S.," ch. g. P. M. Smith, Bath, N. Y., 1, 1, 1; "Kalmer," b. s., J. C. Keefe, Moravia, N. Y., 2, 2, 2; "Erl Rose," b. m., R. M. Ketcham, Wellsboro, 3, 3, 3; time 2:23¾, 2:25, and 2:22¾.

Ulster Defeated Towanda.

It was nearly 3 p. m. before Umpire E. D. Means, called the game between Towanda and Ulster, which was to decide the championship of Eastern Bradford. Mahaney and Bazzette were the battery for Towanda, and Campbell and Morrison for Ulster. Mahaney pitched a good game for Towanda up to the seventh inning. With the score 4 and 3 Ulster found him for four runs. After this Audley Ryan was substituted for Mahaney and only one more run was

THE WATER QUESTION

BOARD OF HEALTH'S REPORT.

Supply from New Reservoir Has Been Condemned and Its Use Forbidden—Council Also Demands Action from the Railroad Company.

The impotent whisperings of discontent and efforts to create an agitation which would force the Towanda Water company to take some action toward fulfilling their contract with the borough, took definite shape at the October meeting of the borough council, when a resolution was adopted that the bill of the Water company be left unpaid until the water committee can secure some more satisfactory arrangement with the company. A report was also submitted which has been made by the local board of health, which announces in no uncertain terms that the water is not the kind that the public should be supplied with. Every member of the board at Monday's meeting appeared to be of the same opinion, which is that prompt and decisive measures be taken to bring the Water company to a sense of its duty, and not allowed to take a temporary brace and then drop back into the present state of lethargy.

The Lehigh Valley Railroad company having taken no action toward explaining their occupancy of River street, a resolution was adopted instructing the secretary to notify the company to take immediate action in the matter and to advise the council of the cause of the delay.

No action was taken on the request of A. J. Fisher for a grade on Orchard street. Secretary was notified to order the electric light company to move the series light on State near Fourth street across the street.

The following bils were ordered paid:

Health Board's Report.

The following is the text of the report made by the local board of health and members of the water committee of council who went to look over the sources of supply:

To the Board of Health of the Borough of Towanda, Pennsylvania:

Gentlemen:

The undersigned, a committee appointed by your honorable body to investigate the several sources of water supply furnished by the Towanda Water Works to the Boorugh of Towanda, respectfully submit the following report, viz:

That on the 21st day of September, 1906, we visited the new reservoir on Plank Road and found the same constructed on marshy ground and filled with stagnant water which is permanently contaminated with organic matter from its bed.

This water is of a dark brown color, has a bad odor and the matter in it will not settle when left standing.

We believe that this water is dangerous to the health of our citizens and its use should be discontinued.

On Sept. 22, 1906, in company with Councilman Cronk of the water committee of the town council, and W. E. Lane, Esq., borough attorney, we visited Satterlee Run and found over six inches of water running into the intake pipe there, being all the water flowing in the said creek.

The family of Delanson Fenner, consisting of five persons, live on the left bank of this creek a few rods above the intake pipe and the drainage from their house, privy and pig-pen will be carried into the creek whenever it rains in that locality.

From Satterlee Run we went to Laddsburg and examined the Eilenberger springs and reservoir. We found the spring walled up and covered with flagstone laid in cement with an iron-framed manhole covered by an iron door which is kept locked. There were 11 inches of water running very slowly in the 12-inch pipe leading from the spring to the reservoir.

The reservoir has been rebuilt of concrete and has an iron-framed manhole covered by an iron door which is kept locked.

Both the spring and the reservoir have iron ventilators attached and are in good condition.

A dam of gravel and sods was across the creek at the reservoir and leading from this dam was a six inch pipe to the main pipe from the spring. A piece of common wire screen covered the inlet to this pipe to keep out leaves and other debris running on the surface of the creek. This pipe was running partly full into the main pipe and thence into the reservoir. There were seven inches of water in the reservoir above the intake pipe leading to Towanda.

We opened this pipe from the creek somewhat and the water in the reservoir ran up to 13 inches above the intake pipe in ten minutes.

We then shut off the creek water almost entirely and the water in the reservoir ran down so that it almost uncovered the intake pipe in 15 minutes.

We then opened the pipe from the creek to its full capacity and the water in the reservoir ran up to 17 inches over the intake pipe in ten minutes, thus showing that nearly all the water flowing in the reservoir comes from the South Branch of the Towanda Creek.

We believe that there is some obstruction in the main pipe leading from the spring which holds back nearly all the water from the spring from flowing in the reservoir.

We found the water in the creek above the old wood dam covered with a white scum and leaves and a number of herds of cattle grazing on the meadows through which the creek and its branches flow, the droppings from which are carried into this stream.

The same farmhouses and outhouses are carrying their drainage into this creek as formerly, and we are of the opinion that it is contaminated by this drainage and its water is unfit for domestic and drinking purposes.

Satterlee Run for the same reasons as above stated is in our opinion also contaminated and its water is unfit for domestic and drinking purposes.

From our observations and inquiries made on the ground we believe that the management of the Towanda Water Works is neglecting its plain duty of keeping these works in repair and is practically allowing the works to run itself and trusting to Providence to avert a failure of supply in dry seasons, when a little common sense and money used in well directed effort at the springs would afford an ample supply at all seasons of the year, the purity of which would be beyond the question of a doubt.

Respectfully submitted,
EDWARD FROST,
C. M. WOODBURN,
Committee.

I concur in the above report.
M. S. CRONK,
Member of Water Committee.

Health Board's Action.

The following resolution of the Towanda board of health was served upon the Water company:

Towanda Water Works,
Towanda, Pa.

Gentlemen:

You are hereby notified that the Board of Health of the Borough of Towanda, Pennsylvania, at a special meeting, adopted the following resolutions, to wit:

"Wheras, the new reservoir of the Towanda Water Works on Plank Road is constructed on marshy ground and the water therein is stagnant and permanently contaminated with the organic matter from the bed of the same, and dangerous to the health of our citizens, therefore be it

Resolved, That the Towanda Water Works be notified to discontinue furnishing water from said reservoir to borough of Towanda.

"Resolved, That the taking of water by the Towanda Water Works from Satterlee Run and the South Branch of the Towanda Creek is hereby condemned as dangerous to the health of our citizens, the water from both of said creeks being impure and contaminated by drainage from houses, outhouses, barnyards and lands upon which cattle are pastured.

"M. E. MILLER,
"Secretary."

Mr. Horton's Promotion.

John H. Horton of Pittsburg, who for several years has been erection superintendent of the Detroit and Norfolk railroad, has resigned his position with that company and taken a higher one as general superintendent of the Pittsburg Construction company. Mr. Horton was in Towanda Friday on business connected with the new railroad bridges here.

MISSING MAN FOUND.

Traced to Columbus, Ohio, by Elmira Newspapers Last Week.

SAID TO BE AN ELOPEMENT.

Rev. J. L. Reynolds of Fassetts, This County, Believed to Have Deserted His Family and Church and Married a Young Woman.

The mystery of the disappearance of Rev. J. L. Reynolds from Fassetts, this county, has apparently been cleared up, as witness the following from the Elmira Advertiser of Monday:

"Rev. J. L. Reynolds and blonde sought license Saturday afternoon. The probate court was closed, but they returned Monday and obtained a license and said they would be married at once and go to Los Angeles, Cal., to live. The bride's name was given as Clara Esther Clark, and her age 23 years. Reynolds gave his age as 43. Miss Clark gave her residence as Columbus, probably to evade a state law. He said he was from Deposit, N. Y. City Editor Dispatch, Columbus, O."

The above dispatch is considered to clear up all doubts as to the whereabouts of the Rev. J. L. Reynolds, of Fassetts. The man left his home in Fassetts one week ago last Thursday and for some time his family feared that he had met with foul play, had died or had lost his mind. He had been in the habit of studying until late hours in the night and sometimes until 3 o'clock in the morning after he had spent a hard day's work on hisfarm. Thisoverwork it was thought might have unsettled his mind. A search was made for him in the territory surrounding his home with no result. As a country pastor, Mr. Reynolds found that his salary was insufficient to support himself and his family, so he not only worked on his own farm, but also hired out to other farmers.

Miss Clark was assistant organist in the Baptist church at Fassetts, was 23 years of age and very pretty. She was believed to have gone to Canton to visit her sister in that place, and her friends thought that she was still in that place until the dispatch was received in Elmira. A letter was received at Fassetts, Saturday, postmarked Canton, Pa., and addressed to Mrs. Ward Soper, Miss Clark's aunt, with whom she lived in Fassetts. It develops that the letter was from Miss Clark's sister in Canton, and stated that Clara had gone away with the minister.

When the report was made to Mrs. Reynolds she was prostrated. She said that she had never thought that there had been any affection shown between her husband and Miss Clark, but later when she was able to think more calmly, she said that several instances might be interpreted to mean that there was deeper feeling between the two than was seen in public.

Mr. Reynolds was pastor of a church in Columbus, O., before he came to Fassetts, a year ago. He gave his residence as Deposit, N. Y., when he appeared in his home city. Reynolds has been married 21 years, and before he entered the ministry he resided in Elmira, where he was a foreman in the Wyckoff mill on the Southside. A report from Fassetts states that Mrs. Reynolds is in a serious condition, as the result of the news which she has heard concerning her husband's conduct.

Rhinbolt—Wayman.

Believing that they had lived long enough in single blessedness, David Wayman, a widower, aged about 65 years, and Mrs. Susan Rhinbolt, a widow and somewhat younger than her sweetheart, were on Tuesday, Sept. 25, united in the holy bonds of matrimony, the solemn service being performed with due dignity by Justice John Meredith at his office. Both bride and groom are residents of New Albany, and after the wedding departed in all happiness to take up, under new conditions, the duties of domestic life.

Two Weddings.

Young Dan Cupid did not neglect opportunities to fling his pretty pointed arrows during fair week, and several weddings have resulted from the holiday when the harvest days are over. Miss Mattie Russell and John McNeal were united in marriage by Justice Charles M. Hall at his office and the same official also performed a like happy service for William Vanderpool, who took as his bride Mrs. Mary Vanderpool. All of the contracting parties are of Towanda.

Judge Fanning Away.

Under the advice of his physician, Dr. D. L. Pratt, Judge Fanning has gone to Asbury Park for a few days' vacation before resuming his active duties.

TOWANDA PROSPECTORS OFF FOR ALASKA.

Party Left Monday Afternoon to Begin Two Years' Trip.

The party of Towanda men who intend to prospect in Alaska left here on Lehigh train No. 1 Monday afternoon for Seattle, Wash., where they will probably arrive Friday afternoon. In the party are Dr. C. S. Means, F. Wyatt Frost and William Putnam. At Seattle they will be joined by James Macfarlane, who went out during the first week in September and has since been engaged in securing suitable outfits for the party. According to the present plans of the party, they are to go at once from Seattle to Southern Alaska, where the coming Winter will be passed. They will make the city of Wrangle headquarters until Spring, when a trip farther North may be taken. The Towanda men are not so enthusiastic over the gold mining prospect of Alaska which has been the magnet drawing thousands to that country, but they believe there are fortunes in other lines of commercial enterprise, in lumber, coal and the different products of the territory.

C. Obenauer, who was mentioned as one of the party at first, has changed his plans and will not go to Alaska.

Good Showing.

While Towanda was crowded Thursday, day and night, with a crowd attending the fair and firemen's parade, two shows and a fireman's dance, only one arrest was made for drunkenness. No robberies were reported; while one man claimed he had been touched for his watch, on investigation it was found he had pawned it. This shows well for the crowd, or the vigilance of the police, or both together. One place of "amusement" not completely conforming to the Towanda standard was promptly closed up and sent away.

A Fine Entertainment.

One of the best entertainments appearing in Hale's Opera House in a long time was "The Choir Singer," a Nankeville production in which a well balanced and very capable company took part. Despite the many other attractions booked in the town for the evening the attendance was good. It is a play with songs, by the famous author of "Sis Hopkins," Carol Fleming, and is replete with clean fun and appropriately embellished with good music. "The Choir Singer" is all right.

The Hortons Home.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Horton and the Misses Horton of Williamsport, arrived at the Ward House in their White steamer Friday noon, on the way home, after concluding a tour of some extent in New York. Mr. Horton is president of the S. and N. Y. Railroad company, and of several large commercial enterprises with offices in Williamsport.

Shoes 80 Years Old.

Standing in front of McKeeby's shoe store, Jonathan Stevens of Asylum, Saturday afternoon showed Henry Rockwell a slipper that his father, Jonathan Stevens, had made 80 years ago, and which is still in a good state of preservation. The slipper, which had been made for Mr. Stevens's sister when she was a few months old, had been made entirely at home and by hand; the elder Mr. Stevens had shot a chipmunk, skinned the little animal, tanned the hide and made and sewed the tiny shoe, which looks and wears about as well as anything of more modern construction. The slipper, during all these years has retained its shape, and the leather looks as good as new. The relic is highly prized by the Stevens family.

Do You Open Your Mouth

Like a young bird and gulp down whatever food or medicine may be offered you? Or, do you want to know something of the composition and character of that which you take into your stomach whether as food or medicine?

Most intelligent and sensible people now-a-days insist on knowing what they employ whether as food or as medicine. Dr. Pierce believes they have a perfect right to insist upon such knowledge. So he publishes, broadcast and on each bottle-wrapper, what his medicines are made of and verifies it under oath. This he feels he can well afford to do because the more the ingredients of which his medicines are made are studied and understood the more will their superior curative virtues be appreciated.

For the cure of woman's peculiar weaknesses, irregularities and derangements, giving rise to frequent headaches, backache, dragging-down pain or distress in lower abdominal or pelvic region, accompanied, ofttimes, with a debilitating, pelvic, catarrhal drain and kindred symptoms of weakness, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is a most efficient remedy. It is equally effective in curing painful periods, in giving strength to nursing mothers and in preparing the system of the expectant mother for baby's coming, thus rendering childbirth safe and comparatively painless. The "Favorite Prescription" is a most potent, strengthening tonic to the general system and to the organs distinctly feminine in particular. It is also a soothing and invigorating nervine and cures nervous exhaustion, nervous prostration, neuralgia, hysteria, spasms, chorea or St. Vitus's dance, and other distressing nervous symptoms attendant upon functional and organic diseases of the distinctly feminine organs.

A host of medical authorities of all the several schools of practice, recommend each of the several ingredients of which "Favorite Prescription" is made for the cure of the diseases for which it is claimed to be a cure. You may read what they say for yourself by sending a postal card request for a free booklet of extracts from the leading authorities, to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, Buffalo, N. Y., and it will come to you by return post.

DEATH ROLL OF A WEEK

Mrs. Gordon Taylor.

This most estimable woman died Aug. 25, 1906, at her home near Towanda. When one of her character and standing drops out of society it is worthy of something more than a passing notice. Let the memory of her good, true life be preserved. Let the example of her christian living be held up for emulation. The loss to the society in which she moved is too great to be passed in silence. Her maiden name was Catherine Scott. She was born in Athens township March 8, 1831, and consequently was in her 76th year of age at the time of her death. She was married to Gordon Taylor Nov. 30, 1865 in Athens township. Two children were born unto them, viz.: John W. S. Taylor, and Lee L. Taylor, both of whom died in early childhood. All her life with the exception of two years was spent in Bradford county. Having been reared by christian parents, in her young womanhood she became an earnest christian, joined the Methodist Episcopal church and remained a consistent and helpful member until her death. She was always an active worker in the church. The light of her life was ever steady and bright, and by it many doubtless found their way to the Savior that she loved and confessed. She was mild tempered, with a loving disposition that won to her many friends, and withal, she was a woman of staunch loyalty to conscience and unswerving in the path of duty and righteousness. Unselfish in heart she lived for others and left the impress of her high character upon all with whom she was associated. There was a native gentility that stamped her as a lady everywhere, and a consequent polish of manners that was more attractive because natpral to her. Her life was every way successful. With a fully ripened character she came to a peaceful end.

Only one death, a girl of 11 has taken place before in the family. Three sisters, Mrs. Welch of Mansfield, Mrs. A. W. Seward of Troy, and Miss Eliza J., of Nashville, Tenn., remain. Mr. Burnham has held nearly every office in his township and at the time of his death was township auditor. His father was a captain of militia, and his grandfather a soldier in the American revolution. He gave freely to church and charitable purposes.

SAYS WOMEN CAUSE SIN.

Minister Declares They Are Responsible For World's Wrongdoings.

Chicago, Oct. 2.—"Women are responsible for most of the sin in the world," said the Rev. Joseph A. Milburn in an address on "Literature In Life" before the Englewood Woman's club. "They allow one standard of morals for themselves and another for their husbands. When their boys go astray they hold out their hands to help them; when their daughters sin they weep, and they make no effort to change this condition of affairs. Men should be held to the same restrictions as women, and women should be allowed the same latitude as men. Women need broader scope. They get into ruts which are suicidal."

OFF TO JOIN TAFT

HAS BEEN IN CUBA BEFORE

This Regiment Saw Service at Santiago In the Spanish War—First of the Army to Go Now—Engineers Go With It.

New York, Oct. 2. — The United States army transport Sumner sailed from the foot of Amity street, Brooklyn, for Havana, carrying the first detachment of troops that have been ordered to Cuba. The pier was crowded with wives, mothers and sweethearts, many of whom had come to the city from distant states to bid their loved ones "bon voyage." There was much waving of handkerchiefs wet with the farewell tears, but for the most part the goodbys were said bravely and cheerfully. It was much different from the sailing of a regiment of volunteers, for the three battalions of the Fifth infantry, of which two-thirds of the detachment on board the Sumner is composed, are old campaigners, and their wives and sweethearts have become accustomed to "seeing them off to the wars."

The Fifth infantry was the first regiment that was ordered to Tampa at the outbreak of the Spanish war. It saw service in and around Santiago for two years, and then in September, 1900, was dispatched to the Philippines, where it remained for three years. It will also be remembered that the Fifth is General Miles' old command and the one that followed him so faithfully through his frontier campaigns. There are many new faces now in the regiment, but even the youngsters carried themselves at the pier with the composure of the oldest campaigner, and one would have thought that they were off for an ordinary encampment.

Engineers and Hospital Corps.

Besides the 517 men and 28 officers of the Fifth there are also on board four companies, 326 men and 12 officers, of the engineering corps and 20 men and 3 officers of the hospital corps.

The detachment is under the command of Colonel C. D. Cowles of the Plattsburg barracks. Colonels Freeman and Comba, who led the Fifth through the Spanish war, are now retired brigadier generals. Colonel Cowles served in the Spanish war as captain and colonel of the First North Carolina volunteers. The adjutant of the regiment is Captain W. Settle, and the engineers are in command of Major M. M. Patrick.

The majority of the men of the Fifth were short time men, whose time would have been up in six months or so, and they were discharged and reenlisted before the detachment was made up. Not a single man expressed a wish not to re-enlist. They are all in good physical condition and should have no serious trouble with the climate. They have just returned to Plattsburg from their 400 mile packless march from Mount Gretna, when they were ordered to get ready to come to New York, and they are all as brown as nuts and as hard as nails.

PALMA LEAVES HAVANA.

Ex-President of Cuba Bids Farewell to All His Greatness.

Havana, Oct. 2.—Ex-President Palma's departure from the palace and from the capital of Cuba was so quiet and unostentatious that it was scarcely realized that he had gone until his special train was traveling eastward. Those present at the palace to see the Palma family off were Secretary of State and Justice O'Farrill, Secretary of Finance Fonts y Sterling, Secretary of Public Works Montalvo, Senator Dolz, president of the Cuban senate; ex-Secretary of State Zaldo, Port Captain Yero, Private Secretary Belt, Senor Jerez, chief of the government secret police; Editor Coronado of the Discusion, Captains Poey and Cardenas, the ex-president's military aids, and two government detectives, who accompanied the family to Mantanas.

Besides these no more than half a dozen of Mr. Palma's most intimate friends bade him a hasty farewell in his private apartments at the palace. All the family were visibly affected over the strange circumstances surrounding their sudden departure in a little more than four months after Palma had been inaugurated under such apparently happy circumstances. It was evident that they were all glad that the closing scenes were about over.

The family, with the servants following, quickly descended the broad marble staircase for the last time, walked quickly to the carriages in waiting at the entrance to the palace and were driven to the ferry at Rigia, where they took a train for Matanzas. The departure was witnessed by a small gathering of loungers in front of the palace, but there was no demonstration of any sort.

New Orleans, La., Oct. 2.—Forty-four lighthouses either swept into the sea and lost or the structures so badly damaged that no lights can be shown and four lighthouse keepers drowned during last week's hurricane is the summary of the report made by United States Lighthouse Inspector Sears of New Orleans. These lights were located on the coast and adjacent islands between the mouth of the Mississippi river and Mobile. Mr. Sears did not investigate the lighthouse losses between Mobile and Pensacola. He has not yet made public an estimate of the money loss involved.

made by Ulster. However, that was enough, and at the close of the ninth inning the score stood 9 to 6 in favor of Ulster. The principal feature of the game was the pitching of Campbell, who struck out 14 men. Campbell is certainly one of the best pitchers that ever played in Towanda and with the exception of the batteries there was but little difference in the playing of the two teams.

The score by innings:

Towanda .....3 0 0 0 0 0 3 0 0—6

The ladies of the Towanda Methodist church, who conducted the dining hall during the fair, achieved a splendid result. They cleared about $300.

Help This Rummage Sale.

Members of the Towanda auxiliary of the Robert A. Packer hospital at Sayre, propose to hold a rummage sale during the early part of November, the proceeds of which are to be forwarded to the hospital. There are nearly always Towanda patients in the institution and the charges are entirely inadequate to the benefits received. The ladies' auxiliaries in a number of places undertake each year to forward something to help in the support of this much needed cause, and the Towanda women who are interested are anxious to be well represented this year in contributions. Any persons finding among their possessions any article that may be classed under the head of rummage and who desires to help, may send the same to Mrs. U. M. Fell, president of the Towanda auxiliary.

The Moderate party in Cuba might appropriately employ some of its time in hunting for a name that would fit it better.

The Franklin News makes the rather startling assertion that "if there were a law requiring all hunters to use blank cartridges there would be less men killed and nearly as many deer and wild fowl."

Senator Simmons of North Carolina, chairman of the State Democratic committee, complains that Federal officeholders are perniciously active in trying to defeat his candidates. He evidently thinks there is somthing pernicious in his own activity.

The open season for squirrels in Pennsylvania if from Oct 1 to Dec. 1, and it shall be unlaful for any person to kill more than six squirrels in one day. Hare or rabbit can be hunted during the month of November. Kili bear, if you can, Oct. 1 to March 1. Woodcock, Oct. 1.

It was a Frenchman who said that "If God did not exist it would be necessary to invent him." It seems to be the same way with the Sabbath. Having succeeded in virtually abolishing the day of rest, the French nation has found it necessary to get up a kind of an artificial Sabbath—not for religious but for "labor" reasons.

Begining last week the government printing office is to become an open shop in fact as well as theory. Men are to be hired and discharged solely on their merits, and judged only by the work they do. It is an illuminating commentary on the conditions that have prevailed in the past that the adoption of such a policy is regarded as a revolutionary change by the individuals most intimately affected.

A story is going the rounds of the clubs of a Chicago millionaire who orderd a replica of the Venus of Milo to be delivered at his home. When the case arrived, the millionaire discovered there were no arms, and threatened to bring action against the railway company for damages. The company sent an official to inquire into the matter, found that the arms were missing—and paid.—The Bystander.

Another tragedy of the California earthquake and fire was brought to light a few days ago by the finding of a score of human bodies in the ruins of a lodging house. The newspaper columns are no longer filled with a recital of the horrors of that awful visitation, but among the homeless and those who have been forced from affluence into poverty, the suffering goes on day after day and will continue for many months to come.

A BLOT ON CIVILIZATION.

There can be no doubt that the intelligent and respectable element of so progressive a city as Atlanta entertains the horror and disapproval of the outrages that have been going on there, expressed by the reported meeting of business men. But the trouble is that some of that class keep silence from fear of the mob, and that there are others of education and standing so swayed by the insanity as to publicly apologize for and practically justify the savagery.

If all the leaders of business and of inteligence in any Southern community stood for the orderly and impartial enforcement of law and justice these reversions to the practice of barbarians could be stopped. But this clear stand is not taken by the combined intelligence of the South. The feeling that the negro must be given no rights is evidently powerful, when the reports tell in one place of a negro killed for crowding a white woman off the sidewalk, while on the other hand a negress barely escaped with her life because she resnted being struck by a white man.

That the South has the perfect right to pass whatever laws are necessary to protect its women against savage brutes, and to enforce those laws vigorously and rationally, all civilization will agree. But that because certain persons have committed crimes and a violent murderous mob shall have the privilege to slaughter all negroes it can find, with supreme disregard of the question of their guilt or innocence, is a grotesque lunacy and blot upon civilization.

IN OWEGO.

It takes a woman to catch a 2½ pound black bass, nearly fall out of the boat, lose the bass overboard and pull it back in again and keep it while her husband stares in amazement. What if her line was tangled? —Owego Record. Well, you're there to untangle it for her, aren't you?

THE FIGHT FOR CONGRESS.

The struggle that is being made for control of congress is a severe one and is growing more strenuous as election day approaches. Inasmuch as the Democrats are bragging that they are going to make a gain of eight or ten congressmen in Pennsylnia it behooves the Republicans of Bradford county to have a care to what they are doing and make this boast an impotent one. The call to make a hard fight to keep congress Republican is a loud one, and will become more and more insistent as the days go by. Attacks on the tariff are threatened in the event of Democratic supremacy and already Bryanism and what is even worse—Hearstism—loom in the foreground. The Democrats of Pennsylvania have in their party platform hailed Bryan as their next president and Democratic conventions in several states have formally endorsed him. He is more than likely to talk himself to death politically before another presidential election comes, but if the unexpected should happen and Bryan or some one like him should become president how good a thing it would be to have congress as it is now—impregnably Republican. However, the most urgent reason for keeping congress Republican lies much closer at hand than Bryanism or the presidential fight of 1908—the support of the President's administration. It is President Roosevelt, his work and his policies, that are now concerned. Shall he during the remaining two years of his term have the backing of a friendly congress? Has he not done well enough so far to abundantly deserve the hearty support in what he has yet to do? Who can say he does not?

The laws passed at the last session of congress, of which the President was the originator and instigator, are alone enough to mark him a patriot and a man of most unusual courage. The record of his administration is known of all men the world over, and speaks for itself. Surely it is most important that during the remainder of his term he should have a Republican congress to help him and not a Democratic congress to hamper him. Let every Republican of Bradford county—whether he be a regular or a Lincolnite—be careful of his vote on congress. Keep congress Republican and the stronger the better.

Mial E. Lilley is the Republican candidate for congress in this, the Fourteenth district. He has made a most excellent record. Examine it. He has supported the President and will support him. George W. Kipp is a Democrat and a Democrat he will continue to be, and if elected, when party lines are drawn and caucus obligations imposed, as they surely will be, he will be found fighting the President. That is what Democrats go to congress for and no matter how much Mr. Kipp pledges his word and honor to the support of "every reform measure of the character of which Mr. Roosevelt has been advocating in the past," he will stand with his party and do what his party does. It is true, the President had the support of Democrats in passing some recent reform legislation, and let them have what credit is due them for it. But because, in a few instances, they supported measures which, for party reasons, they did not dare oppose, they have not become friends of the President or of his administration. Mr. Kipp is a Democrat, and no Democrat can be counted on to support a Republican President or Republican policies.

WHERE TO BUY, AND WHY.

With the advent of October, comes the briskness of new ozone in the air, shorter and busier days, and the inevitable impetus to trade. Every one needs something more than they possess at this season; the man needs new clothes, the housewife has her needs inumerable, and the children are also in the race. And this Fall, more than in many seasons past, exists the financial ability, as well as a wholesome inclination among the prosperous public to purchase.

In casting about to find the most satisfactory place to invest in the necessaries and comforts and luxuries of life, let no one become imbued with the idea that money will be "saved" by going to the next town to contribute to the welfare of the merchants of that place. The great secret of modern business is, that because of the concentrative methods now in operation, a majority of standard goods are sold to all alike. The Towanda clothier, if he pays his bills, may buy as advantageously of the great manufacturers as the merchant in Elmira or Binghamton; it's the same with furniture, stoves, carpets, dress goods and a thousand other commodities. City merchants argue to the contrary with attractive booklets and well worded publicity, but actual experience and demonstrated results are proving the fact. Without considering the matter of sentiment, loyalty to home, local patriotism or the kindred feelings which are supposed to move the minds of men possessed of any degree of local pride, you can buy at home as cheaply as abroad these days. The advertising columns of The Daily Review and the weekly Reporter-Journal are at this time affording a store of valuable information to the wise buyer, and it may be stated without stretching the truth, that in more ways than one, it will pay you to buy at home. At the least, it is a cheap way of showing your public spirit, for you won't loose anything and you will help your friends and neighbors to help you; for with increased business, down go the prices.

The September statement of the state treasury shows a balance of $9,503,494.56 in the general fund and $2,594,21.28in the sinking fund at the close of the month.

A DEMOCRATIC WAIL.

There are times when it is only necessary to point out to thinking people that when the Democrats assail and there is "weepin' and wailin' and a gnashin' out of teeth," as the colored exhorter said, that there is some reason for such action.

The Montrose Democrat in a scare line heading, asks whether larceny had been committed, just because the Democratic nominee for congress had not been endorsed by the Lincoln party conference at Tunkhannock on Sept. 20. What right has the Democrat to claim the suport or allegiance of the Lincoln party? By what token does it claim to foster this political organization?

The Lincoln party, as we understand it, has endorsed the principles of the Republican party as exemplified by Theodore Roosevelt, and its purpose and intent is not to engage in warfare against our President. Its support is to attempt to purify state politics through the leadership of Louis Emery, Jr.

We do not agree with the Lincoln party on their state issue; but we do emphatically agree with the action that they have taken in refusing to nominate a Democrat at the conference held in Tunkhannock. As no other name than that of Mr. Lilley was presented at that conference, and as the conferees from Bradford county withdrew, after an organization had been perfected and before any man's name had been presented, it is only fair to assume that those who nominated Mr. Lilley acted in good faith.

If Bradford county was so virtuously inclined, why did it not present to the conference the name of some good Republican, who would agree to stand by Theodore Roosevelt? Instead of that it was for a Democrat, Mr. Kipp, and for him only.

Dr. O. H. Rockwell, the Bradford county member of the state committee of the Lincoln party, wrote to the chairman of Wyoming, Susquehanna and Wayne counties, and it is to be certainly supposed that he also wrote to the chairman of Bradford county, that under no circumstances should a Democrat be nominated at the Tunkhannock conference.

The Bradford county conferees consorted all day at Tunkhannock with the Democratic conferees, and instead of the larceny which the Democrat invokes being with the counties of Susquehanna, Wyoming and Wayne, if there was any, it was of the Bradford conferees by Democratic ways and means.—Montrose Republican.

ALASKA'S PAST AND FUTURE.

What the future of Alaska is to be can only be conjectured. The country is rich in gold and other mineral deposits. In some sections agriculture is possible in a considerable scale; but unless the mineral resources prove so great as to furnish a source of supply for a long period of time, it is doubtful if Alaska ever supports a very large population.

But while the future of this region cannot be foretold, it is known to have had an interesting past, into which the pick and shovel of the miner have afforded the world a glimpse, but but nothing more. Alaska is now a very cold country. The Winters are long and severe and the Summers short. But it was not always thus. Time was when it was one of the favored sections of the earth, climatically speaking. Vegetation flourished and animal life abounded. Great rivers which long ago disappeared, flowed majestically on their way to the ocean, and the country was good to look upon.

All this has been revealed by the search for gold. The pick and the shovel have brought to the light of day many fossil remains that tell the story. From the glacial mud have been unearthed the remains of mammoths, mastadons, bisons, reindeer, mountain sheep and other animals which long since disappeared. The climate changed, the cold became intense, and they could not survive.

From these discoveries it is easy to comprehend how in the distant past Alaska was a far different country from what it is now, but whether man inhabited it can only be conjectured. The pick and the shovel have not solved the problem. But that the country was once a suitable one for the abode of humans there can be no doubt. More will be known about its past in the future than is known now. The geologists have made but little study of the region as yet, but some day they will delve deeply into its secrets.

But while Alaska is so little known as yet, the world is nevertheless well aware that Uncle Sam made a splendid bargain when he bought it of Russia for seven million dollars in gold. Many times what it cost has been taken out of it in precious metal, fish and furs, and the indications still are that it will prove a source of far greater wealth than most people imagine can be possible.

A CENTURY AGO.

One hundred years ago a man could not take a ride on a steamboat. He had never seen an electric light or dreamed of an electric car. He could not send a telegram. He could not ride a bicycle. He could not call a stenographer and dictate a letter. He had never heard of the germ theory or worried over bacilli and bacteria. He never heard a phonograph talk, or saw a kinteograph turn out a prize fight. He never saw through a Webster's unabridged dictionary with the aid of a Roentgen ray. He had never taken a ride in an elevator. He had never seen his wife use a sewing machine. He had never struck a match. He couldn't take an anaesthetic and have his leg cut off without feeling it. He had never seen a reaper or a self-binding harvester. He had never crossed an iron bridge.

NEW YORK POLITICS.

The political situation in New York which a week ago was confused almost beyond comprehension, has been clarified wonderfully by the action of the Republicans and Democratic conventions. The nomination of Charles E. Hughes by the Republicans of New York and the nomination of Hearst by the Democratic convention leaves little doubt of the result. It should be an overwhelming victory for the Republican candidate.

The nomination of Hughes was, no doubt due to the belief that he was President Roosevelt's choice. While the President has abstained from interference, even in the contest in his own state, his preference was generally understood. No other man available would have made as strong a candidate as Hughes. He has the prestige of having done things. He has the confidence of the people that he will be unbossed and uninfluenced. He was just such a candidate as the Republicans needed. That his nomination was brought about in spite of the intrigues of the former bosses is another factor in his favor. Odell's early declaration for him could not have won him the nomination which he has now received on his own merits.

The endorsement of Hearst by the Democrats was the work of Murphy of Tammany, aided by an up-state organization of Hearst boomers that made heavy inroads upon the Democratic workers. Hearst has denounced Murphy as a subject for the penitentiary and Murphy has posted Hearst as an anarchist. But that was before Mayor McClellan on his re-election repudiated Murphy and defeated Hearst. A common enmity may account for the Murphy-Hearst alliance, but it is more palpably due to personal ambitions. Hearst wanted the governorship and was ready to swallow Murphyism for Tammany's votes. Murphy wanted Hearst's aid to keep control of Tammany against McClellan.

The issue before the voters is therefore plain. Hughes represents clean government. Hearst represents himself and Murphyism. The old-line Democrats will have no choice but to vote for Hughes. No Republican need be ashamed to vote for his candidate. Both on personal records and on issues there should be no doubt of the result.

PUBLICITY THE REMEDY.

The power of publicity to correct the abuses that have crept into the management of corporations and are so injuriously affecting the public welfare, received authoritative indorsement in an address delivered by United States Commissioner of Corporations Garfield, at the opening of the school of commerce and finance of New York university, last week.

Mr. Garfield spoke on a subject with which his official position affords him exceptional opportunities for familiarity, and he was unqualified in his belief that the systematic regulation of corporations, demanded by the aroused public conscience of the country, would eventually prove to be a remedy for the evils that are now attracting so much attention.

There is no doubt that the recent exposures of corporation mismanagement have already exercised a profound influence on the commercial morality of the country. The morals of business have been materially improved by the force of public opinion. The great leaders of finance are no longer insensible to the moral sentiment of the nation. Too many reputations have been shattered by the disclosures of fraud and corruption that were revealed in such scandals as were produced by the insurance and packing house investigations, not to make the condemnation of the public feared.

Corporations are creations of the state, and it is no invasion of individual rights to let the people know how they are administering the trust that has been reposed in them.

WHY READING IS ACTIVE.

Probably no railroad stock has been so steadily active in recent times as that of the Reading, hundreds of shares of which are bought and sold daily even among local business men of this section.

The common stock of the Reading railroad pays 4 per cent. and the shares are selling at 145 to 150, which will net to the buyers but 2¾ per cent. on the investment. This furore over the Reading shares can only be explained by the fact that its coal and iron properties are enormously valuable and, with the conservative management under which they have been administered since the last organization the permanent control of the same becomes sufficiently desirable to certain interests, even at fancy prices. The Reading pool in Wall street is, therefore, bending every energy to take advantage of a situation which they believe to be imminent, viz., the Baltimore and Ohio passing under the control of the Union Pacific.

The popular theory is a revival of the report that the Reading company is to become a great holding company, which will take over all the coal properties of the various coal roads. Under the provisions of the Heuburn bill it is held that the coalers will have to get rid of their anthracite and bituminous properties, the federal laws making it impossible for a railroad to own a company the products of which it is engaged in transporting. This would seem logical, also, for Reading, through its control of Jersey Central and its ownership of Lehigh Valley, is already the dominant factor in the anthracite coal industry.

CANADA'S EXPANSION.

News that may be significant comes from Canada showing that the ties which bind the Dominion to the mother country are beginning to chafe. The Ottawa government is now anxious to be represented by a Canadian attache at the British Embassy in Washington, having at last awakened to the absurdity of the present routine by which communication between the two governments is carried on via London, says the Pittsburg Dispatch. The usual course followed by an American note dealing with Canadian matters is through the British Ambassador, the British foreign office, the colonial office and thence to the governor general. The Canadians think that matters of importance to their commercial interests are hampered by this circumlocution and that the appointment of a Canadian attache at Washington would give them the direct representation they should have with their nearest neighbor and best customer.

At the same time there is a demand across the border for Canadian consuls abroad, where Canadian trade requires it. It is asserted that the British consuls are not only useless for Canadian purposes but actually an impediment to the Dominion's commercial expansion. These propositions have been received with something akin to horror in London, where they are regarded as tending to a separation between British and Canadian interests. It is evident that the Canadians so intend them to be and that sooner or later they will have to be conceded if the tise that bind are still to hold.

MR. ROOT'S TRIP.

Secretary of State Root's trip to the South American countries has been an undertaking that may not be followed by any appreciable immediate benefit, but it ought to pave the way to a better political understanding. The Southern republics and the United States have been kept apart, largely by reason of the fact that a closer acquaintance has not been cultivated. The former have been suspicious of us and have looked upon our good intentions with distrust. The Monroe Doctrine has been regarded in a spirit contrary to that with which we have invested it. Mr. Root has come in contact with the men in official life and he has worked for a better understanding of our intentions and a larger degree of mutual friendliness.

Mr. Root's observations with reference to the commercial relation between these countries and the United States must be largely superficial. The consuls have already pointed out where our trade interests might be bettered. What Mr. Root may say will only emphasize what the consuls have said. If representative business men of the United States, under the auspices of their general associations, were to follow the route taxen by the secretary of state and observe for themselves the conditions and the advantages for trade expansion, their eyes would be opened,—more would be accomplished than through the medium of reports and the observations of nonexpert government officials.

In a political sense Mr. Root's mission may be fruitful of good results; in a business way much may not be accomplished.

ECONOMICAL PRINTERS.

A. Nevin Pomeroy, superintendent of public printing, transmitted to Governor Pennypacker yesterday his annual report for the year ending June 30, 1906. The report states that the cost of the public printing for the year was $242,240.05, or $79,416.58 less than the cost for the preceding year, and less than it has been for th epast eleven years, with the exception of the years 1899 and 1900. This is the first report of the operations of the department under the new printing act of 1905, which Mr. Pomeroy says is "more equitable and more in conformity with the present conditions than was the former act."

During the past three years the cost of paper, printing and binding for that period has mounted to $815,050.48, as compared with $967,833.24 for the three preceding years.

RED SIGNS FOR AUTOS.

New Color Will Prevent Use of Old Tags—Large Sum Realized.

The automobile tags which people who own or operate motor vehicles in this state after Dec. 1 will have to display will be red enamel instead of blue as at present. This decision has been reached at the state highway department which has charge of the issuance of the tags and bids will be opened for them about the 15th of October. The designs will not necessarily be the same as at present, but bids will be received upon any design. Only the color must be red with the abbrevation "Pa." and the number of the license and the year in white.

So far this year there have been almost 13,500 automobile licenses issued by the department, the proceeds over and above the cost of the manufacture of the tags and other necessary charges being devoted to the general funds of the department for surveys for new roads. The amount of money realized has been handsome, as each license is $3 and there are no deadheads. The fund has enabled the department to make surveys and do work which it otherwise would have been unable to even attempt. Al of the money has ben spent for preliminaries to road improvement and almost every county in Pensylvania has received a share. In addition experiments in dust prevention have been made.

Kasson—Jones.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. William Henry Jones of Stevensville, was the scene of a pleasant social event on Wednesday afternoon, Sept 26, when their only daughter, Theo Winifred, was married to Archie F. Kasson of Sayre. The parlor had been tastefully decorated for the occasion with ferns, palms,, princess pine, and various kinds of white flowers, the prevailing colors being white and green. Preceding the ceremony Miss Mildred Eastabrook, a friend of the bride, sang "Oh, Promise Me." At 1 o'clock, as the familiar strains of the Lohengrin march were heard, the bride and groom entered the room preceeded by the little ring bearer, Miss Hattie Wilkes, dressed in white. During the ceremony, which was performed by the bride's pastor, Rev. James S. Wilkes, the bidal parir stood beneath a large horseshoe of white flowers, while back of them and on either side was a bank of beautiful palms and ferns. The bride wore a dress of white silk mull, trimmed with white chiffon and baby Irish crochet, and carried white fan sprayed with tuberose. As soon as congratulations were over, all proceeded to the dining room and partook of a delicious luncheon prepared by a cateress from Towanda and served by Miss Frances Stevens and Victor Eastabrook of Stevensville and Byron Geary of Rush. After viewing the presents which combined beauty with utility, the guests to the number of 30 and more, gathered in the front yard to say a last word and to salute the departing couple. Soon the bride and groom appeared, the bride clad in a navy blue traveling suit, and amid a shower of rice started on their wedding tour. After visiting New York, Brooklyn and other places, they will return to Sayre where the best wishes of their many friends will follow them to their new home.

BEN ACKLEY NOT ALLOWED HIS FREEDOM.

Motion for His Discharge Brings Tilt Between Hall and Judge.

In the absence of Judge Fanning, who is recuperating from his recent illness at Asbury Park, Judge Charles F. Terry of Tunkhannock, was here Monday to hear motions coming before the court. Of these, the most interesting was that made by Attorney Charles M. Hall, as counsel for Benjamin Ackley, now a prisoner in the county jail, and who was brought before the court on habeas corpus proceedings.

Ackley is the man who appeared at the last term of court as prosecutr in the case of the commonwealth against Clara Green. The jury rendered a true bill, placing one-half of the costs of the action on the prosecutor. Instead of paying up, Ackley postponed the matter with the result that he later became an inmate of the jail where he has since remained. He engaged Attorney Hall, who yesterday moved for the prisoner's discharge on the ground that the court in which the case had come had no jurisdiction in the matter, that the prisoner had been unlawfully held.

Judge Terry, after hearing a few of the reasons advanced for the motion, found that Ackley had no case, and refused to entertain the motion; the case caused considerable amusement among the attorneys present.

INFANT GAVE FIRE ALARM.

Night Cry of Baby in Tenement at Sayre Saves Lives.

When the three weeks' old baby cried at 3 o'clock Monday morning Mrs. Charles Donlin, who lives in the Brundage house at Sayre, awoke to find the house filled with smoke, and aroused her husband, who gave the alarm. A serious fire followed, but all of the 35 inmates of the house escaped. A loss of about $4,000 on the hotel and of $2,000 on the furnishings, owned by Charles Donlin, the lessee of the house are only partially covered by insurance. Fire thieves tried to loot the building during the excitement, securing some jewelry, revolvers and other property.

Charles Donlin also reported to the Sayre police yesterday that a wallet belonging to him and containing $75 had been stolen; the police are working on the case.

Iron for Bridges Here.

Contractor John F. Dolan, in charge of the Lehigh Valley construction work in progress in this vicinity, states that the iron work for the new bridge to be erected on the company's line on the Noble property, has arrived and will be put into position as speedily as possible. The girders for the "causeway" have also come, and it is expected that the erection work will be comenced by Oct. 8. The erection work which is skilled labor, will necessitate the presence of a number of experienced and highly paid bridge men, who will be brought here and put on the job at an early date.

Nusbaum—Woodruff.

At the home of the bride's parents in Sayre on Saturday last was solemnized the wedding of Miss Helen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Woodruff, and Wilbur Nusbaum of Washington, D. C. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. J. F. Warner, pastor of the Sayre Methodist church. The bride is one of Sayre's most popular young ladies and is a former resident of Towanda. The groom was formerly employed as a machinist in the Sayre shops and is now employed at the same occupation in the U. S. navy yard at Washington.

Quick Advertising Results.

Everybody recognizes the fact that advertising pays and brings results. Therefore it was natural that when F. P. Bull of Asylum found a pocketbook in the road at South Towanda, he brought it to The Review office to advertise for the owner. It was just as natural for the owner to call up this office to advertise for her lost pocketbook and money. Of course it wasn't necessary to advertise, but the incident illustrates how unanimously the people turn to The Review to make their wants known and to get results.

Take Care of the Leaves.

The members of the Village Improvement society wish to call the attention of everybody to the leaves in front of their homes, and also the waste papers which are thrown in the streets and are a great annoyance, especially the papers which are blowing about on the main thoroughfares and so often frighten horses and cause serious accidents. When doing your morning sweeping, look out for weeds and papers, and by doing this help the town to make a neat and clean appearance. Just try it.

Grading West of Canton.

Work on the grading of the Pittsburg, Binghamton and Eastern railroad West of Canton has been commenced. FIREMEN PARADE.

Annual Inspection March Made on Thursday Evening—Burgess Spoke.

The annual parade and inspection of the Towanda fire department was held Thursday evening, the five companies marching the length of Main street pave. Red fire illuminated the way and the whole town and hundreds of visitors to the fair lined the curbs to see the drill. The line was headed by the fire police; next came the Germania band and then the department officers and the companies in the order of their numbers in the department.

While the turnout was light, owing to the muddy streets and the fact that fair week kept many at work late, the boys made a brave showing and did some excellent fancy drilling. The line of march was from Park street to Mix avenue and then down Main to Barclay and countermarch to the court house. The department apparatus was lined up on Park street. The parade was reviewed from the Ward House balcony from which Burgess William Foyle addressed the firemen, who lined up "company front" at the hotel.

Athens Road Not Started.

Work on the proposed new state road at Athens did not begin last week as was announced, nor has anything yet been done in the matter; the delay is caused by the fact that the state officials have not yet affixed their signatures to the contract, and Engineer Nafe Walker, and Contractor McAfee of Athens, have begun to think that this important piece of work may now be held over until next Spring. The county commissioners were prompt to sign the contract and as far as they are concerned the work might have proceeded a week ago but the town officials and the state authorities have delayed the plans. There is no doubt about the work being done, but it was hoped that a start would have been made before this.

LOETZER VALVE COMPANY MOVING FROM TOWANDA.

J. O. Frosts' Sons Require Additional Room for Their Businss.

The Loetzer Valve and Manufacturing company, for the past five years one of the prosperous industries of Towanda, has vacated the quarters in the J. O. Frosts' building on Pine street, a location that has been used for a machine shop and foundry since time out of mind. This move is made necessary in order to give Frost's Sons much needed additional room for their furniture business, especially in the finishing and packing departments.

Frost's Sons will make several changes and alterations. The business office is to be moved to the upper side of the building to the room now used as a shipping room. The present office and the large space vacated by the Loetzer company will be used for the packing department, and the second story of that part of the building will give much needed additional room for the finishing department. For the past two years the firm has been handicapped for lack of room.

At a meeting of the Loetzer company held Wednesday afternoon, it was decided to move the plant to Monroeton where the business of Boothe & Miller will be taken over and their building occupied. Daniel Miller will be the superintendent in charge.

W. H. McAllister, for the past few years superintendent of the Loetzer plant, has taken a position with the Humphrey Manufacturing company's Towanda plant, where the business of his old plant, outside the manufacture of valves and hydrants, will be handled.

FRED HEEMAN LANDED.

Caught at Athens, Charged With Burglary—Several Other Charges.

Once again the general store of Bingham Brothers at Lockwood, has been burglarized, and once again a member of the Heeman family captured by the Waverly police, is suspected of complicity in the affair.

"On Saturday night last the store of Bingham Bros., at Lockwood, was entered by thieves who secured a quantity of two and five-cent postage stamps; several pairs of shoes, a number of coats and smaller articles. Sunday the officers were acquainted with the story and began a search for the presumably guilty parties. At about 3 o'clock Monday morning suspicion pointed so strongly toward certain members of the Heeman family that it was thought best to take them in custody and securing a rig from O. F. Benson the three officers drove toward the Cove where the men were supposed to be. On their way down they stopped at the home of Constable George A. Fice who for some time has had a warrant for the arrest of Henry Heeman, one of the men suspected of having entered the store. This warrant was sworn out before Justice H. F. Johnson by Heeman's wife and charged him with assault and battery."

In pursuit of the suspects, the Waverly police, headed by Chief Brooks, were fired upon, one of the bullets narrowly missing Night Patrolman P. W. Corcoran. The Athens and Waverly authorities believe they now have two of the guilty parties, Fred Heeman and Francis Heeman.

Henry Heeman is wanted in Towanda to explain a couple of burglaries down the river and the larceny of a boat in New York state.

Ithaca Station Robbed.

The Lehigh Valley station in Ithaca was broken into Sunday night and robbed. The thieves who evidently were professional burglars secured about $1,195 i nmoney besides some tickets. The railroad company detectives and local police are at work on the case, but so far no arrests have been made. Just how the robbers gained an entrance to the building cannot be determined but it is thought that the locks were picked by an expert skeleton key worker.—Sayre Times.

Wellsboro State Road Delayed.

Notwithstanding the execution of the contracts for the new roads on East avenue and on lower Main and Charleston streets in Wellsboro, it is now reported on semi-official authority that no work of any material consequence will be done on this contract until next year.—Wellsboro Gazette.

HUGHES BY ACCLAMATION

BRUCE GETS SECOND PLACE

Other Present State Officers Unanimously Renominated.

WOODRUFF STATE CHAIRMAN

Brooklyn Leader Succeeds Odell—Lafayette B. Gleason Secretary of New State Committee—Hughes Accepts Nomination, Promising, if Elected, to Do His Duty According to His Conscience—Jerome's Revolt Cheered.

Convention Hall, Saratoga, N. Y., Sept. 26.—The Republican state convention adjourned sine die after nominating the following state ticket:

For governor—Charles E. Hughes of New York.

For comptroller—Merton E. Lewis of Monroe.

For attorney general—Julius M. Mayer of New York (for re-election).

For state treasurer—John G. Wallenmaier of Erie (for re-election).

For state engineer and surveyor—Henry A. Van Alstyne of Columbia (for re-election).

This ticket was nominated by acclamation, without opposition or division of any kind and amid notable enthusiasm.

past forty-eight hours seemed almost impossible of harmonious solution. The up state leaders, realizing that they would be unable to accomplish the nomination of Lieutenant Governor Bruce, for which they had been working very hard, decided to combine upon ex-Lieutenant Governor Timothy L. Woodruff if he would accept. They estimated that with the vote of Kings county they would have upward of 600 votes, a majority of the convention, for Woodruff.

Subsequently Mr. Woodruff asked these leaders to release him from any further obligation in the matter, and from that moment the nomination of Hughes became a certainty. This was increased by the knowledge that Mr. Hughes had the approval of President Roosevelt and by a telegram from Governor Higgins declaring unfounded any reports that he was either opposed to Hughes or endeavoring to defeat or nominate any particular candidate.

Woodruff State Chairman.

One important result of the day's proceedings was the consummation of the overthrow of ex-Governor Odell by the election of Mr. Woodruff to be chairman of the state committee in his place. Lafayette B. Gleason of Delaware, clerk of the state senate, was chosen secretary to succeed Reuben L. Fox of Otsego.

The result is a brilliant victory for Congressman Herbert Parsons, the recently elected president of the New York county committee, who from the outset has insisted upon the nomination of Hughes and whose success in bringing it about involves a defeat of a group of able and experienced political leaders.

Eleven o'clock, the hour set for the convention, found the hall well filled, with two bands playing at once in opposite corners of the gallery and an air of tense expectation and half suppressed enthusiasm ready to break forth on the slightest pretext.

The first roar of cheering and applause broke out at 11:05 a. m. when ex-Governor Black entered the hall. The band saw him before the audience did, and "Three Cheers For the Red, White and Blue" formed the accompaniment of the cheers. This welcome had not died down before ex-Lieutenant Governor Woodruff entered and was greeted with still more marked enthusiasm.

State Senator William W. Armstrong of Rochester, who was known to have been selected as permanent chairman, received a warm welcome. By 11:10 the hall was a pandemonium of music by the rival bands, cheering of popular local leaders as they entered and eager discussion as the news spread of the agreement upon the unanimous nomination of Hughes.

Odell Gets an Ovation.

Chairman Odell and State Senator Brackett of Saratoga entered the hall at almost the same time and were received with enthusiastic and long continued applause.

The convention was called to order by Representative Michael E. Driscoll of Syracuse as temporary chairman, who called for the report of the committee on credentials, which was presented by Judge Merrick C. Stowell of Oswego as the chairman.

Senator William W. Armstrong was then elected permanent chairman and amid cheers was conducted to the platform by Representative Sereno E. Payne of Auburn, Republican leader on the floor of the house of representatives, and Herbert Parsons of New York.

Senator Armstrong began his speech by saying that for six successive times the Republicans had met in convention and nominated a ticket which had been ratified at the polls in November, and he expressed the opinion that a seventh time it would do the same. This assertion was met with applause.

As in the case of Congressman Driscoll's speech, every reference, however slight, to the name of President Roosevelt by Senator Armstrong set off, as it were, automatically a ringing salvo of cheering. The names of Higgins, Black, Odell and Morton were also cordially applauded.

Senator Armstrong's reference to the insurance investigation was recognized instantly as offering occasion for a tribute to his own part therein, and it was given heartily.

After the applause which rewarded Senator Armstrong had died down he called for the report of the committee on resolutions. This was presented by the chairman of that committee, General Stewart L. Woodford of New York, formerly minister of the United States to Spain, who moved its adoption.

At the conclusion of the reading of the platform General Woodford moved its adoption, and it was unanimously adopted.

Nominations for governor were then called for, and the excitement became intense.

Job Hedges of New York first obtained the floor, amid cheers, which broke into laughter when he declared that "the sun which rises here today will set in Buffalo" in a gloom so deep that "even a Democratic platform could not describe it." The picture which would be painted at Buffalo, he said, would be made up chiefly of "what isn't, never was and never can be."

"I have just received a telegram from Buffalo," said Mr. Hedges, "which suggests that if brute force prevails there will be a declaration on principles."

The platform just adopted, Mr. Hedges said, would be of no value unless a man was nominated who embodied its principles. Mr. Hedges then nominated Charles E. Hughes amid tremendous enthusiasm.

Bruce Seconds Hughes' Nomination.

Lieutenant Governor M. Linn Bruce and William Prendergast of Kings seconded the nomination.

State Senator John Raines of Ontario moved that the secretary cast the ballot of the convention for Mr. Hughes. This was carried with a roar of "ayes," and the chairman announced that nomination, saying, "Gentlemen, you have nominated the next governor of New York."

Without waiting for the cheers to subside Chairman Armstrong called for nominations for lieutenant governor, and Herbert Parsons nominated M. Linn Bruce. Delegate Sanderson of Delaware county, where Bruce formerly lived, seconded the nomination. Senator Horace White of Syracuse also seconded Bruce. The nomination was confirmed by acclamation.

Congressman Sherman of Oneida moved that the secretary cast one ballot for the nominations of John F. O'Brien for secretary of state, Merton Lewis for comptroller, J. G. Wallenmaier for treasurer and H. A. Van Alstyne for state engineer, all renominations.

The motion was carried, the ballot cast and the nominations confirmed.

Great cheering welcomed the report of Jerome's announcement at Buffalo that a rump convention would be useless and that if the Republicans nominated a decent man at Saratoga he will stump the state for him.

Following this announcement a telegram from Charles E. Hughes accepting the nomination for governor was read. Mr. Hughes' message was as follows:

"I thank you for your confidence. The Republican party has been called to defend the honor of the state and to represent the common sense of the people and the cause of decent government. I shall accept the nomination without pledge other than to do my duty according to my conscience. If elected, it will be my ambition to give the state an efficient and honorable administration, free from taint or bossism or of servitude to any private interest. A united party making an appeal to good citizenship must win."

The usual routine was then completed and the convention adjourned without day.

To Remove a Political Assessor.

Washington, Oct. 2.—The president has determined to remove from office Vivian J. Fagan, United States marshal for the southern district of Ohio, upon the report of the civil service commission that he had been guilty of making political assessments, and Marshal O'Neill of the western district of Louisiana on the allegation of general unfitness as disclosed by the report of a commissioner of the department of justice.

MAY NEVER TRY THAW

Lunacy Commission, It Is Said, Will Soon Be Applied For.

EXPERTS SAY HE IS CRAZY

Numerous Visits Made by Famous Alienists to Man Who Killed Stanford White—Prisoner's Counsel Reticent on Lunacy Question.

New York, Oct. 2.—Harry K. Thaw, the slayer of Stanford White, will probably never be brought to trial. His case is No. 14 in a list of twenty-eight homicide cases to be disposed of by the district attorney, and there are strong indications that a commission in lunacy will be applied for by one side or the other some time before No. 14 is reached.

Clifford W. Hartridge, attorney for Thaw, said that there would be no commission applied for "this month." He would not say, however, that he would not at some time make such an application. In this connection it is known that the associate counsel retained by Hartridge are in favor of applying for a lunacy commission. Mr. Hartridge himself has not approved of such a step, but his recent actions would indicate that he has decided to listen to the advice of his confreres.

It is considered practically certain that a commission will declare Thaw insane. Several prominent alienists have already so found.

Chosen by Thaw Himself.

Mr. Hartridge, it will be remembered, was called in as counsel in the case by young Thaw himself after he had dismissed former Judge William M. K. Olcott of the firm of Black, Olcott, Gruber & Bonynge because the latter insisted on making insanity the plea in his defense of the case.

At the time when Mr. Hartridge took over the defense from Mr. Olcott it was widely heralded that Thaw had rebelled at being adjudged insane and that he had insisted on a trial, pinning his faith in an acquittal on the plea that in taking the life of White he had only acted as any injured husband would have.

Mr. Hartridge now denies that he ever stated what his defense would be or that he promised his client not to advance a plea of insanity in his behalf. When asked for a categorical answer to the question, "Do you intend to make application for a board of lunacy in the Thaw case?" Mr. Hartridge would only say, "No application for such a board has been made."

The further question, "Will such an application be made this month?" elicited the same reply, "No application has been made."

"Will you say that no such application will be made?" Mr. Hartridge was then asked.

Will Not Commit Himself.

"I will not say whether it will or will not," the lawyer replied. "I am not divulging what my plans may be ahead of time."

"Will you say why it is that Mr. Thaw is submitting to almost daily visits from noted alienists if it is not to permit them to observe his mental deficiency and to testify as to it before a lunacy board later?" was the next question.

To this Mr. Hartridge would make no reply. "I have absolutely nothing to say," he repeated, "except that I have never said that my defense would not be insanity."

Swedish Vice Consul at Batum Shot.

Batum, Transcaucasia, Oct. 2.—M. Hager, the Swedish vice consul here, was mortally wounded while driving in a carriage in the outskirts of the city and died in the hospital to which he was conveyed. His murderers escaped. M. Hager, who was manager of the Nobel Naphtha works, is the second consular officer murdered during the last five months, the first victim being William E. Stuart, the American vice consul, who was shot and killed at his country place near here May 20.

John R. Walsh Wins.

Chicago, Oct. 2.—Authoritative announcement that John R. Walsh had obtained entrance into Chicago for the Southern Indiana and the Chicago Southern Railway companies and has gained the assistance of eastern capitalists has been made, according to the Record-Herald. The Chicago Terminal Transfer Railway company is the medium through which entrance into Chicago has been arranged.

Shoots Judge Advocate In Court.

Askabad, Transcaspian Territory, Russia, Oct. 2.—During the trial of the second section of the troops who mutinied here in June an unknown man entered the courtroom and killed the judge advocate, General Rinkevich, and attempted to shoot the president of the court, General Ushakoffsky. The assassin was shot down by an officer.

Trains Collide In Dense Fog.

Chicago, Oct. 2.—In a dense fog the limited passenger train on the Grand Trunk railroad crashed into a suburban train at Elston, nine miles from this city, demolishing three coaches and injuring a number of persons. One of the injured, Charles R. Liferman of Chicago, is not expected to live.

Karl Muck Arrives.

New York, Oct. 2.—Professor Karl Muck, who comes to America to conduct the Boston Symphony orchestra, arrived here on the steamer Kaiser Wilhelm der Grosse.

Buffalo Bill Back From Europe.

New York, Oct. 2.—Colonel William F. Cody (Buffalo Bill), accompanied by Major John M. Burke and sixty Sioux Indians of the Wild West show, arrived on the Red Star liner Zeeland after four years in Europe.

"A LIE," SAYS PLATT.

Both Senator and His Wife Denounce Report of Estrangement.

New York, Oct. 1.—The difficulties which are reported to have arisen between United States Senator Thomas C. Platt and his young wife, whom he married Oct. 11, 1903, seem to be in the process of adjustment and will probably be entirely dispelled at a conference which is to be held in this city.

Senator Platt denied positively a report published to the effect that there was an estrangement between himself and his wife. The story, so the senator said, was a malicious lie.

Mrs. Platt was seen by a reporter at Turner, on the line of the Erie, as she was about to take a train for New York. When asked about the report as to the alleged trouble between herself and her husband Mrs. Platt said:

"That wretch Carmody (Mrs. Platt's son-in-law) is responsible for all this. There is no truth in the story. It is all a lie. There is no trouble between Mr. Platt and myself. I called him up on the telephone and am now on my way to meet him at the Hotel Gotham.

"There is trouble between Colonel Carmody and his wife, who is my daughter. His attitude is such that he would stop at nothing to make trouble for me. He would like to ruin my reputation. I have heard for some time that something of this kind was contemplated. It is the most contemptible thing I have ever heard of. It is all a lie."

The story alluded to by Senator and Mrs. Platt was to the effect that Mrs. Platt was about to sue for a divorce, basing her action on the senator's alleged admiration for a beautiful actress, and that the senator would bring a counter action, naming Mrs. Platt's coachman as corespondent.

STALLED TRAIN HIT.

Two Killed and Forty Injured In Crash on Pennsylvania Road.

Philadelphia, Sept. 30.—Two persons were killed, several more may die and forty were injured in a frightful rear end collision of passenger trains on the New York division of the Pennsylvania railroad at Eddington, Pa., nineteen miles north of this city. Following its customary policy of silence, the Pennsylvania railroad declines absolutely to furnish information regarding the cause of the wreck or the number of killed or injured. It is stated by passengers, however, that the Long Branch express, bound for Philadelphia, had stopped to cool a hot journal. While the train crew were at work on the journal the express train which left New York thundered around a curve and crashed into the Long Branch train.

It is declared that the express from New York disregarded signals and thus caused the accident. Most of those killed and injured were in a Pullman car rear of the Long Branch train. It was cut in two as with a knife, and the impact smashed the two coaches ahead of it.

Text of Taft's Proclamation.

Governor Taft's proclamation was as follows:

To the People of Cuba:

The failure of congress to act on the irrevocable resignation of the president of the republic of Cuba or to elect a successor leaves the country without a government at a time when great disorder prevails and requires that, pursuant to the request of Mr. Palma, the necessary steps be taken in the name and by the authority of the president of the United States to restore order and protect life and property in the island of Cuba and the islands and keys adjacent thereto and for this purpose to establish therein a provisional government. The provisional government hereby established will be maintained only long enough to restore order, peace and public confidence by direction of and in the name of the president of the United States and then to hold such elections as may be necessary to determine on those persons upon whom the permanent government of the republic should be devolved. In so far as is consistent with the nature of a provisional government established under the authority of the United States this will be a Cuban government, conforming with the constitution of Cuba. The Cuban flag will be hoisted as usual over the government buildings of the island, all the executive departments and provincial and municipal governments, including that of the city of Havana, will continue to be administered as under the Cuban republic, the courts will continue to administer justice, and all the laws not in their nature inapplicable by reason of the temporary and emergent character of the government will be in force.

President Roosevelt has been most anxious to bring about peace under the constitutional government of Cuba, and he made every endeavor to avoid the present step. Longer delay, however, would be dangerous, in view of the resignation of the cabinet.

Until further notice the heads of all the departments of the central government will report to me for instructions, including General Alexandro Rodriguez, in command of the rural guards and other regular government forces, and General Carlos Roloff, treasurer of Cuba.

Until further notice the civil governors and alcaldes will also report to me for instructions.

I ask all citizens and residents of Cuba to assist me in the work of restoring order, tranquillity and public confidence.

WILLIAM H. TAFT,
Secretary of War, United States Provisional Governor of Cuba.

GEORGE WASHINGTON, JR.

London Globe Likens Roosevelt's Son to Pater Patriae.

New York, Oct. 2.—The Times publishes this item: "'Thus does history repeat itself,' remarks the London Globe, referring to the reported dictum of the American magistrate that Theodore Roosevelt's son could not tell a lie. The Globe's meaning is that we have another George Washington in America after waiting for him many days.

"The Globe's reference to Theodore Roosevelt, Jr., doubtless grows out of the judicial inquiry into the attack by Harvard students on Boston policemen on Friday. Young Roosevelt was supposed to have some knowledge of the affair, but declined to impart it to the authorities. A dispatch from Boston said that the magistrate had made no comment on the veracity of the president's son."

WINS THE SKY RACE

FLEW OVER ENGLISH CHANNEL

Balloon United States Covered More Distance In Less Time Than Any Other of the Sixteen Entries In International Air Craft Race.

Paris, Oct. 2.—All the uncertainty regarding the result of the balloon race for the James Gordon Bennett cup, started from here on Sunday afternoon, was ended when a dispatch was received by the Aero club announcing that the Hon. C. S. Rolls and his companion, Colonel Capper, in the balloon Britannia, had landed at Sandringham Upland, thus establishing that Lieutenant Frank P. Lahm, Sixth cavalry, U. S. A., the American competitor in the race, who descended near Whitby in the balloon United States, is the winner.

Signor Vonwiller, Italy, is second; Count de la Vaulx, France, third, and the Hon. C. S. Rolls, Great Britain, fourth.

Lieutenant Lahm's friends are enthusiastic over his victory. With the exception of Senor Salamanca, the Spanish aeronaut, Lahm was the youngest competitor. Since his assignment to the cavalry school at Saumur, Lahm has devoted much attention to aerostatics, and his rapid advance as an aerial pilot has already attracted considerable attention. He made a dozen ascensions during the summer, the longest voyage being from St. Cloud to St. Brieuc. The lieutenant took the place of his father in the race, the latter, who is the best known American aeronaut in Paris, being called home on Saturday.

Lieutenant Lahm covered 415 miles against 370 miles covered by Vonwiller, his nearest competitor.

LAHM IN LONDON.

Aeronaut Tells How He Won James Gordon Bennett Cup.

London, Oct. 2.—Lieutenant Frank P. Lahm of the Sixth cavalry, U. S. A., winner of the international balloon race, arrived in London from Whitby, where he spent the night. The lieutenant and Major Hersey, his companion during the trip, described their voyage as having been most delightful, the weather favoring them from the start until shortly before the finish, when an easterly wind sprang up and took their balloon, the United States, dangerously close to the cliffs near Whitby.

At the start, Lieutenant Lahm said, a westerly wind carried the balloon over western France and then, veering northwestward, took her across the channel from just north of Caen to eastward of Chichester. They had a beautiful moonlight night for crossing the channel and greatly enjoyed the experience. The balloon was so low and maintained her equilibrium so well that the aeronauts were enabled to see persons on the decks of the channel steamers.

After crossing the channel the wind took the United States almost directly north along the coast, and had the breeze continued favorable, Lieutenant Lahm said, there would have been no trouble in reaching Scotland. As it was, an east wind sprang up and was carrying the balloon back seaward, so the aeronauts made a leisurely descent, the lieutenant climbing down the guy ropes to inquire the way to the station. As the wind was favorable, the Americans continued their journey toward the railway, descending not far from the station.

Stabs Wife For Laughing at Him.

New York, Oct. 2.—Slashing her throat with a razor and then with a pocketknife, Joseph Peters, a salesman, inflicted probably fatal injuries upon his wife of three months in their home, 40 Nostrand avenue, Brooklyn. He is under arrest in the Vernon avenue police station, and his wife, who is seventeen years old, is in the Eastern District hospital. In the police station Peters admitted the attack, saying that he was tired of his wife and that he could not endure her attitude toward him. "She laughed at me," he kept repeating.

Terrorists In Peterhof Palace.

St. Petersburg, Oct. 2.—Further details of the recent arrests of terrorists in the palace of Peterhof were published by the Svet, from which it appears that terrorists had been living for some time in the quarters of a lackey named Klepnikoff, who was arrested recently charged with being concerned in smuggling the terrorists through the guards and arranging their hiding places. The terrorists paid liberally for information about the movements of the members of the imperial family.

Beats a Mile a Minute.

Mineola, N. Y., Oct. 2.—The fastest time yet in the trial spins over the Vanderbilt cup course was made when Louis Wagner in his 100 horsepower Darracq reeled off the round in twenty-six minutes flat, which is at a rate of more than sixty-eight and a half miles an hour. The time was disputed by several clockers at Krug's corner, but there were a round half dozen with stop watches who agreed on the figure as correct. This was Wagner's first appearance on the course.

General Smith Home.

New York, Oct. 2.—General J. H. Smith of the United States army arrived from Bremen on the steamer Bremen. He expects to be ordered to Cuba.

VORACITY OF BLACK BASS.

This Favorite Game Fish is Also a Cannibal, It is Alleged.

The black bass is like "a roaring lion going about seeking whom he may devour." I have seen a good sized specimen go into a school of minnows and eat and stuff until he could not get any more into his capacious insides, then swim off by himself, throw up what he had eaten, and begin over again, after which he would keep on killing the poor innocent minnows, apparently for the mere pleasure of killing. Young bass will attack minute water life which fluorishes on water plants and get away with every one in sight, adopting the same method as their elders. To illustratethe extent of the cannibalism of a superintendent of one of the fish hatcheries in Pennsylvania.

The superintendent made an actual count of 20,000 young bass about an inch long and placed them in a fry pond by themselves. He gave them food six times a day, and, according to his statement, each fish ate on an average there times its own weight of the prepared food every 24 hours. They wer placed in a pond on July 1, and on Oct. 1, when they were taken out, there were only 11,000, and the record showed that less than 200 died from sickness. It is reasonable to suppose, therefore, that in addition to the food given them by the superintendent there were about 9,000 bass devoured by their stronger and more fortunate companions. — Field and Stream.

Oakvale Andes

Other oak stoves are simply direct draft, allowing much heat to go wasted up chimney. The Oakvale Andes has a full return-flue, so that all the heat produced is radiated into the room.

Made of cast iron, and so more durable than oak stoves with steel drums. The joints are perfectly fitted and cemented with asbestos; the dampers ground in emery, making a really air-tight stove. All nickeled parts are detachable.

This stove will be found a more powerful, economical and easily controlled heater than any ordinary Oak Stove can possibly be.

We will be glad to exhibit this stove and other Andes Ranges, to you at our store.

It is entirely within the limit of the truth to say that with every year that passes the speaker who preaches the tree planting gospel is bound to have a larger and more attentive hearing.

Of all things that can be listed in the category of the worthless we know of nothing that surpasses in good-for-nothingness the worthless cur. He stands in a class by himself and has no competitor.

There's many a man who habitually bemoans his own hard luck and fails to understand the success which his neighbors achieve who would prosper as well as they if he but applied the same measure of intelligence and energy to the tasks which lay before him. Good luck, so called, lies more in the man himself than in any aspect of his environment.

We know of a number of women who, during the past summer, have had practically the whole care of the home lawn. Where there was not already an overburden of household cares and duties this has proven an enjoyable as well as beneficial outdoor exercise. Where the lawn mower does not push too hard it would be superior to the broom or mop as a means of exercise.

An accident we noted the other day, in which a lady had all the exposed portions of her face and neck badly scalded with steam, enforces the fact that a tight cover should never be placed on a dish of boiling water unless there is other and sufficient outlet for the steam. If made a prisoner the expanding steam is bound to force a way out, and usually with a good deal of risk to the housewife in case she happens to be about.

The work of the national government in reclaiming its western arid sections has been so effective that it is attracting the attention of other nations. There is a growing demand in Canada, Australia, Russia and several South American countries for information regarding the development of our irrigation projects and the methods followed by the United States in obtaining and compiling stream measurements and in making topographic surveys.

We know of no way in which the interest of boys on the farm can be aroused in its activities and their loyalty secured than by interesting them in thoroughbred stock of some kind, which they can tend to and enjoy a portion of the proceeds of. If that fourteen-year-old boy is getting restless and dissatisfied with the old home farm give this plan a trial. If he is a thoroughbred boy he will quite naturally be interested in thoroughbred cattle, hogs and corn.

The only possible way of explaining the numerous instances where biped suckers get plucked and skinned in all kinds of raw and snide games is that such people belong to a class who never read the daily and weekly papers, which usually are full of the accounts of similar frauds played on other people or who, if they do read, derive no benefit therefrom either along the line of warning or instruction. Such folk seem to have no insight, little intelligence and less memory concerning matters of this kind.

The government of New South Wales leads the procession in the matter of restrictions and safeguards which are placed about the killing of different food animals. In addition to insuring the greatest measure of cleanliness in the matter of handling the dressed meats, the law provides two years' imprisonment for the person slaughtering a diseased animal, while it prescribes a still longer term for the one who sells diseased meat. Twelve hours' notice must be given of intention to slaughter, and in case no such notice is given a penalty of $25 a head may be imposed.

People appreciate a square deal even though they don't always mention the fact. If you want your patrons to hunt you up instead of your seeking them, let it be not only known that you have what they want, but also that you are always frank and honest in your dealings whether you are selling a load of hay or a pound of butter. You know how much you yourself appreciate a good measure in buying a yard of cloth or an extra stick of candy for the baby; even so your customer doesn't like to feel that he has to scrape the quart measure in order to get his allotted milk or eat the cores in order to be sure of his peck of apples.

There is this much truth in the old saying that thunder will sour milk—namely, the electricity in the air tends to rapidly increase the bacteria which cause the milk to sour. Strictly speaking, it is the lightning and not the thunder which does the business.

Good schools, telephones, rural mail delivery, daily papers and interurban electric car lines are all uniting to increase the wants of the rural community. More wants, higher standard of living, higher wages and shorter hours is becoming the order of the day.

That there is good money in truck and intensive farming is shown by the bank rating of Peter Reard, a market gardener of Sioux City, Ia., who is claimed to be worth $150,000. He owns 250 acres of land in the limits of Sioux City and owns twenty-nine houses in a nearby city. The income from his property is $500 per month.

The New England housewife in no way shows her thrift and foresight more than in well filled shelves of canned fruit, preserves and other supplies for winter. If you see a housewife in whom this tendency is strongly developed it is quite safe to assume that she is a New Englander by birth or traces her lineage pretty straight to that thrifty stock.

We note that an Indiana agriculturist paper is still advocating the use of nitro cultures in getting a start with clover and alfalfa. A word of advice that it will do well to follow is to have nothing to do with the so called cultures except on the direct recommendation of one's own state experiment station or the department of agriculture at Washington.

A good deal of crooked and dishonest work is involved in the methods a good many men adopt in the packing of apples. If one is in doubt, but means to do the right thing, a good rule to follow is to put no apples into the barrel as a packer that you would not be willing to accept at the other end of the line as a purchaser. It's the only rule that is worth a copper.

The tendency of good and bad types and traits in farm animals, grains and grasses to perpetuate themselves accounts alike for scrubs and thoroughbred products to be found everywhere. In a very real way scientific agriculture consists in a systematic attempt to increase and perpetuate the good tendencies and discourage and exterminate the scrub or evil tendencies in plant and animal life.

By way of illustrating that the faith of the tree planter is rewarded we note the case of a western farmer who has lately cut 1,000 cedar trees from a grove planted twenty-six years ago, selling them to a telephone company for use in the construction of its lines, the price paid being $1.50 apiece. This goes to prove that there is good money in the growing of trees if a fellow only has the right kind of faith and is willing to bide his time.

There are a good many people who wish that the reported development of a type of chickens by an eastern poultry fancier, whose merit consists in the fact that one leg was shorter than the other and that as a result they walk in circles and never stray far from their own premises, were true and that the breed might be introduced as generally and rapidly as possible. We know of quite a number who we feel sure would supply their neighbors with eggs.

The railroads of the country are already sharing the general concern which is felt as a result of our rapidly decreasing forest areas and in particular those varieties of trees which furnish suitable railroad ties. In 1902 the Pennsylvania Railroad company planted 14,,000 locusts on lands adjoining its right of way, in 1903 they planted 43,000, while the past season they set out 800,000 trees of the same variety. The Michigan Central is also experimenting with catalpas, having recently planted 80,000 young trees on a tract of 123 acres.

While not always true, it is quite often the fellow who is belated with his spring plowing and planting who is also late with his harvesting operations and a tail ender on the thrashing list. This matter of being late is largely a matter of temperament and habit and a tendency that can to quite an extent bediscouraged or encouraged at the will of the individual afflicted. While the forehanded fellow is sometimes unavoidably delayed with his work, it is seldom that the slack and chronically hindhanded individual is caught doing any of his work ahead of season.

"Does the orchard pay?" is a question that every owner of such a tract should be vitally interested in. In way of answering the question it may be said that some orchards do pay and others do not, quite largely depending upon the intelligent care and attention which they do or do not receive. One central Iowa orchard of sixty acres of which we know showed a return of $50 per acre annually during a period of five years. This is doubtless far above the average, but yet it goes to show what can be accomplished by painstaking and intelligent care. Where there is one orchard like this there are probably a dozen, large and small, that do not give a net return of $10 per acre.

THE FRUIT TREE AGENT.

From now on until snow flies and perhaps later is the harvest season of the persistent, perennial, peripatetic fruit tree agent. While this chap is as wise as a serpent, it cannot be said of him that he is as harmless as a dove. He is not gadding about over the country for his health. It's the granger's coin he is after, and he will ram just as much of it down his jeans as his own nerve and brass, coupled with his victim's gullibility, make possible. He usually does the most business in districts far removed from the nursery he represents, where he and his house are little known. In addition to being guilty of palming off on his unsuspecting customers trees and shrubs that he positively knows will not grow in the latitude where he offers them for sale, he often sells apple, plum and other trees that are not at all true to name, a fraud that it may take years for the buyer to uncover. In view of a number of rank frauds of this general type that have come under our notice we are convinced that the only safe course to pursue is to give these fellows a wide berth. They regard neither God, man nor the devil, much less their unsophisticated would be victim. It is, as a rule, true that it usually costs people who get swindled by these fellows, even if there are good grounds for damages, more to recover what they have lost than the amount involved in the swindle. If these fellows should talk you up to the point where you feel you really must have an order of fruit trees, politely tell them that you will place it with your nearest reliable nurseryman, who can be counted upon ninety-nine times out of a hundred to give you better stock at a much less price.

KING COTTON.

In much the same way that corn occupies the most important place as the great staple crop in the northern states cotton holds sway in the south. It is interesting to note in this connection that the export record of the United States for the fiscal year just ended shows that the value of cotton in raw and finished form exported from this country during the last year exceeded $400,000,000, surpassing by far the value of any other article of merchandise sent out of the country. The exports of breadstuffs of all kinds aggregated only $186,000,000, of provisions $211,000,000 and of iron and steel manufactures only $161,000,000. The increase in cotton exports has been very marked during the past five years, amounting to 33 per cent or over $100,000,000. As a purchaser of raw cotton the United Kingdom leads with $177,000,000 worth, Germany takes $101,000,000 and France $45,000,000, while in the matter of manufactured cotton products China is our best patron, taking $30,000,000 worth out of a total of $53,000,000. The showing made is a fine one and bespeaks the remarkable era of prosperity which the south is enjoying.

POULTRY TESTS.

Until quite recently it has been left to individual initiative and enterprise to attend to the scientific development of the poultry industry of the country and tabulate the results obtained with different breeds and under various conditions of care and feeding. Within the present year, however, the animal husbandry section of the department of agriculture has undertaken a series of experiments to determine the relative value of different methods of feeding, while the Iowa station has added a regular poultry department in which the egg producing capacity of different breeds will be given a careful test under the same conditions of care and feed. The aim in brief is to do for the poultry interests of the country and state what the station seeks to accomplish for the swine, sheep and cattle interests through these respective departments. The results obtained in these poultry tests will be reliable and impartial, inasmuch as they will not be conducted with a view to feathering the nests of the raisers of this or that particular breed.

HARVESTING APPLES.

Our orchard experience this year leads us to believe that it would be advisable to make two pickings of apples at from two to three weeks apart. The first time through the ripest and largest fruit could be picked off and marketed. This would not only result in saving practically all of the earliest maturing fruit, which usually falls to the ground and is wasted, but it would also serve to relieve the tree and enable it to mature the remaining apples in much better shape. Where there are few apples on the tree this would not be necessary, but where the tree is overfull it is compelled by a natural law to drop much of its load before it can mature that which remains. In such cases the two pickings have much to commend them.

FERTILIZING ORCHARDS.

While the fact is one that is commonly overlooked, it is worth while remembering that trees in the orchard of whatever kind are just as much in need of fertilizer as is land that produces any kind of a grain or forage crop. As a somewhat striking illustration to prove this point, we noted the other day the case of a thirty-year-old orchard, in which every row of trees was dead except one of Fameuse, which is a notoriously short lived tree. The reason assigned for this by the owner of the orchard was that this one row of trees had been given a good mulch of manure every other year and the others had not. Bearing apple trees need fertilizers if they are to live and bear fruit just as much as a man needs food if he is to keep well and work.

Ancient Glass.

In the Slade collection at the British museum in London the most ancient specimen of pure glass the date of which can be approximately fixed is a small lion's head, bearing the name of an Egyptian king of the eleventh dynasty. That is to say, at a period which may be moderately placed at more than 2,000 years B. C. glass was made with a skill which shows that the art was far from new.—London Telegraph.

NEW YORK FASHIONS

The small figured taffetas make very fetching toilets in both simple and elaborate styles. One of the new gowns, and one of unusual grace, is shown here. The deep, pointed yoke and fichu effect is most fetching, while the natty short sleeves are quite in keeping with the smartness of the whole. The waist closes in the front and crosses in surplice style. The skirt is fulled a bit about the top and finished with four deep tucks at the lower edge. A gown of this kind might be made up in any of the softer silks or crepe de chine and prove very attractive for nice wear. For the medium size ten and one-eighth yards of thirty-six inch material are needed to develop the dress. Two patterns—No. 6714, sizes, 32 to 42 inches bust measure; No. 6715, sizes, 20 to 30 inches waist.

SPANISH WAR VETERANS' NATIONAL ENCAMPMENT.

Will Meet Next Week in Washington; Delegates from Here.

The United Spanish War veterans will hold their national convention at Washington next week, commencing Monday, Oct. 8, the chief event of the encampment being a reception to be given by President Theodore Roosevelt to his comrades of the late war, in which he took part as colonel of the famous Rough Riders.

The national association has recently called upon all camp adjutants for a roster of their camp with all postoffice addresses and military and camp records. The record division of the United States pension department has also called on camps from time to time for a roster, thus making membership in the local camp of value to every soldier. Adjutant Thomas M. Stalford, of Charles F. Moore camp, has collated the following data from his camp records: Members in good standing, 47, of whom half were in foreign service; total enrollment, 56, of whom 25 have served in the Islands; 15 in the Regular army; infantry, artillery and cavalry, all being represented; 10 in the U. S. Volunteers, while 37 followed the flag of the Ninth Regiment, Pennsylvania Volunteers, infantry.

The members hail from 25 different companies, in 15 regiments, five companies of the 28th U. S. V. and Ninth Pennsylvania Infantry, being represented. The local camp has a total of 78 enlistments to its credit, with a total service of 938 months, an average of 16 months for each soldier, the shortest service was two months, the longest 13 years, both of these being discharged for disabilities contracted in the line of duty. Fifty of the men were born in Pennsylvania, four in New York, one each in Scotland and Austria. The youngest at enlistment was 17 years old, the oldest 44 years of age, and the average age of members at enlistment was 28 years. The volunteers average older than the regulars.

The next meeting of Charles F. Moore camp will be held in the P. O. S. of A. hall, Towanda, next Friday evening, Oct. 5, at 8 o'clock, and a full attendance should be present as a delegate is to be elected to the National encampment.

Well Made Road.

Many compliments were heard during the fair from those who drove over the new road, recently laid by the Lehigh Valley company under direction of the county commissioners, from the covered bridge to the station. The piece of road is one of the best in the county, and underwent a thorough test during the week.

Does Your Heart Beat

Yes. 100,000 times each day. Does it send out good blood or bad blood? You know, for good blood is good health; bad blood, bad health. And you know precisely what to take for bad blood—Ayer's Sarsaparilla. Doctors have endorsed it for 60 years.

One frequent cause of bad blood is a sluggish liver. This produces constipation. Poisonous substances are then absorbed into the blood. Keep the bowels open with Ayer's Pills.

NEARLY DOUBLE FATALITY.

Two Young Men, Sitting on Lehigh Tracks, Struck by Cars.

Sitting on the Lehigh railroad tracks, at a point about half way between the East Towanda and upper stations, Fred Castlebury and Raymond Wells, two young men who live at McCormick's boarding house in Lombard street, had narrow escapes Friday night from just such a horrible death as that which overtook Vine Terry a week ago. Both young men did not get up when a freight train approached, and as the speed of the train was too great to stop, the men were knocked down the embankment, and only a miracle seems to have prevented a fatality.

The men were taken to the McCormick house, where Dr. T. Ben Johnson dressed the injuries which are in each case painful but not serious.

Mr. Davies Slightly Hurt.

While interestedly watching one of the ball games at the Bradford county fair last week, former Lieutenant Governor W. T. Davies, standing some feet behind the catcher, was struck by a batted ball, and sustained a painful though not necessarily serious injury. The hard, new ball struck the governor full in the face, cutting his lips, and nearly knocking him down; Mr. Davies, who in his day was a famous local exponent of the national game, looked ruefully at the ball and, after feeling to see if he had any teeth left, remarked with a twinkle, that if he had only seen the fly coming, he could have caught it and put out the batter. The aged statesman was driven to his home, in Second street, where it was found necessary to take several stitches in the wound.

Linderman—McGlenn.

Michael H. McGlenn and Helen Mae Linderman, both of Troy, were married at the home of the bride on Wednesday evening last. The wedding took place in the presence of 50 relatives and intimate friends and the officiating minister was the Rev. E. A. Hall, pastor of the Methodist church. The bride was gowned in white nun's veiling and carried a shower bouquet of white sweet peas and asters. She was attended by her cousin, Miss Elizabeth Wolfe of Elmira, and the best man was the groom's nephew. Harold McGlenn of Waverly. The young couple will reside in Troy, where the groom is a member of the firm of McGlenn, Smith & Co.

Mr. Murphy Goes to New York.

It is announced that M. J. Murphy, formerly in the Citizens National bank of Towanda, and later cashier of the Athens National bank, has resigned as cashier of the Keystone National bank of Scranton to accept a similar post in a new bank to be located on Broadway, New York. Mr. Murphy went to Scranton two years ago, and when the Keystone bank was organized, and has made good. He received a flattering offer to become cashier of the Merchants and Mechanics' bank of Scranton, but decided to go to New York instead. he will make his mark in the metropolis, as have many other Bradford county men, is aforegone conclusion.

The Back Number.

Horace Greeley used to say that "to neglect to advertise is like resolving never to travel by steam or communicate by telegraph." It is a physical inability for the Twentieth Century retailer to compete successfully with his up-to-date rivals while adhering to Eighteenth Century methods in the most important department. Greeley was right. She merchant who isolates himself from the public by failing to take advantage of the unlimited opportunities for frowth which advertising affords threeby stamps himself as a back number of whom buyers will naturally fight shy.

Snyder—Bahr.

Oscar Snyder of Cattawissa, and Miss Emma Bahr, a popular young lady of Overton, were married Sept. 18, at Lestershire, N. Y. After a brief wedding trip to Niagara Falls, West Virginia and Maryland, Mr. and Mrs. Snyder will commence housekeeping at Hillsgrove, where Mr. Snyder has a position with the tanning company.

Fast Trotter.

The Pratt horse, "Major Ross," so clearly outclassed his field in the 2:40 race that the contest was nearly devoid of interest. The gallant little gelding is entered at the Bloomsburg races in the 2:27 trot, for a purse of $400, and it is thought that he will prove an easy winner.

Veteran Postmaster.

D. K. Marsh of Marshlands, Tioga county, is 80 years of age, and is said to be the oldest postmaster in continuous service in the United States. He was appointed by President Buchanan, and has been in charge of the postoffice in his town ever since.

Wedding Invitations Issued.

Invitations have been issued for the marriage of S. Bergen Park, Esq., of Towanda, and Miss Jane A. Buckley of Williamsport. The wedding will be celebrated at the bride's home on Wednesday evening, Oct. 17.

TEACHERS' INSTITUTE PROGRAM IS VERY FINE.

Instructors and Evening Entertainers Are of the Best.

The annual session of the Bradford County Teachers' Institute will meet in Hale's Opera House in Towanda, October 8, at 10:30 a. m., and continue during the week.

The following instructors have been engaged for the day sessions:

Hon. Henry R. Pattengill, ex-state superintendent of public instruction, for Michigan.

Dr. T. S. Lowden, Clarke university, Worcester, Mass.

Prof. Charles H. Albert, State Normal school, Bloomsburg.

Dr. Andrew Thomas Smith, principal Mansfield State Normal school.

Prof. O. H. Yetter, Bloomsburg.

These are well known educators and will give practical instruction along the various lines of teachers' work. Dr. Lowden and Mr. Pattengill are new to the institute and it is considered to be rare good fortune to secure their attendance. Prof. Albert was present for the first time last year. The invitation to return bespeaks his wlecome. Dr. Smith has appeared three times before and is a familiar friend of the teachers of this county. This is Mr. Yetter's fifth consecutive engagement, as musical conductor. He has made himself very popular with Bradford county teachers and has given an inspiration to music in the public schools.

The evenings' lectures and entertainments will be as follows:

Tuesday—Dr. Edward Burton McDowell, lecture, "Picture Story of the Panama Canal."

Thursday—Strickland W. Gillilan, humorist, lecture, "Sunshine and Awkwardness."

Friday—Musical entertainment. The Kellogg-Haines Singing Party, introducing scenes from English and comic opera in costume.

Frank Dixon is the youngest of the famous group of preacher-orators, father and three sons, who have gained national and international reputation. He was born in 1866, in North Carolina, and was graduated from the university of his native state in 1886. He was pastor of churches in West Virginia, California and Connecticut for 14 years previous to 1902, and was distinguished for fearlessness and aggressiveness, for eloquence and magnetic power. For the past three years he has been lecturing constantly.

The story of the Isthmian canal from the commencement of the work by the French engineers down to the present time is a romance of squandered millions, incompetency and corruption which tells like fiction which the American nation is today turning into fact. Dr. McDowell has just returned from the Isthums where he has studied the work now in progress on the canal and the general conditions existing in the new Republic of Panama. With his motion picture camera he obtained 15 moving pictures which are the first ever made in Panama, and besides he made over 500 negatives, from which selections will be made to illustrate his interesting narrative.

Isabell Garghill Beecher could not be so truly an artist in her chosen profession if she were not first an earnest and discriminating student of literature, and of life, which literature interprets. In her work the dramatic element in literature does not appeal to her first; and the author's attitude toward his subject is kept from sight as completely as the reader's own personality. But, having caught the spirit of a work, she is able to bring it, living, before her audience. It is this ability to call forth "spirits from the vasty deep" of literature which gives her work its unique character and places upon it the stamp of genius.

Gillilan tells his own stories, many of which, as he says, have been originated by a good many people since he originated them; reads his own inimitable bits of original verse that fairly reek with all that is best in humanity and all that is funniest in the whole world; talks his own monologues in the easy, interesting, converastional style that makes the audience forget it is being "entertained" and feel that it is having a most delightful visit with a marvelous newfound friend who is as ludicrous as h eis awkward and as wise as he is witty. There is no man on the platform today who works more individuality into his public appearances, no other man so distinctly himself or so fascinatingly amusing. His work is as clean as your ears used to be on Sunday morning when mother got through using the knitted wash rag.

Canton Bowlers Best.

The Canton bowling team demonstrated its superiority over the Troy bowling team at Wheeler's bowing alleys there Wednesday by making a total of 394 more points than Troy, it being decidedly a one-sided contest. The Troy team is consisted of Messrs. Ludington, Pierce, Linderman, Boughton, Campbell and Hooley, and the Canton team is Messrs. McIntosh, Blakely, Wakeley, Dougherty, Inscho and Wheeler. Neither team bowled a remarkable game.—Advertiser.

CHANGED ROUTE FOR NEW RAILROAD.

P., B. & E. Will Now Join Northern Central at Cedar Ledge.

The Pitsburg, Binghamton & Eastern railroad will go through Canton via the Towanda creek route and will form a junction with the Northern Central railroad at Cedar Ledge.

This statement is official, and workmen are already chopping down trees and grading the roadway at Cedar Ledge. The route goes through the orchard and cornfield of J. H. Brown.

A number of carloads of supplies have been at Cedar Ledge for several weeks, and there is no doubt that work in that vicinity will be pretty lively from this time on.

The change in route through Canton makes it necessary to abondon the work started at East Canton. The trestle work will be torn down and the highway that was changed will be restored as originally. From East Canton the route will follow the creek.—Sentinel.

W. B. LAYTON GOING TO SCRANTON AS BANK CASHIER.

Succeeds M. J. Murphy in Keystone National Bank.

W. B. Layton of Galeton, has been elected cashier of the Keystone National bank of Scranton, to succeed M. J. Murphy, who goes to New York. Both young men are former Towandians. The Scranton Tribune says of the changes:

"Cashier M. J. Murphy, of the Keystone bank, has resigned to accept the position of cashier of the Beaver National bank, on Wall street, New New York, a new institution which will open its doors for business about Nov. 1.

"It was through the splendid progress made by the Keystone bank that the New York capitalists were led to make the handsome offer to Mr. Murphy, who has been cashier of the local bank since it commenced business, a little more than two years ago, with a capital of $50,000. In that comparatively brief period the deposits have jumped up to a half million dollars, while the surplus and profits are already one-half the amount of the capital. That much of this is due to the admirable tact and ability displayed by Mr. Murphy cannot be gainsaid.

"He will be succeeded at the Keystone bank by William B. Layton, cashier of the First National bank, Galeton, Potter county, this state, who comes very highly recommended. He will assume charge on Nov. 1, when Mr. Murphy retires.

HURT BY CARS.

One of Lehigh Valley's Foreign Laborers Fell Under Wheels.

Thomas Ciangoni, an Italian laborer on the work at Wysox, was badly injured at that place Sept. 25, when he fell under the wheels of a passing freight train.

How the foreigner managed to meet with the accident can not seem to be explained; one of his legs was fearfully crushed and he was otherwise cut and bruised. The train that ran over him, took the unfortunate man to the Sayre hospital for treatment.

Fine Eagle Shot.

While hunting squirrels on Sol Beardsley's Hill on the first day of the hunting season, G. N. Baker of Herrickville, shot and killed a golden eagle. Human Blood Marks.

A tale of horror was told by marks of human blood in the home of J. W. Williams, a well known merchant of Bac, Ky. It cures hemorrhages, chronic coughs, settled colds and bronchitis, and is the only known cure for weak lungs. Every bottle guaranteed by Turner's Drug store. 50c and $1. Trial bottle free.
